Former Northampton County District Attorney Stricken At Home in Palmer Township

Stanley J. Fehr, 56, former Northampton County district attorney, died unexpectedly at about 12:45 a.m. yesterday at his home on Oakdale avenue, Lincoln Terrace, Palmer Township.

Members of the family said he had attended the Lafayette-Lehigh football game, had then entertained friends at home, and had gone out for dinner. He returned home and had just opened the door for his wife when he collapsed. He apparently died instantly. He was pronounced dead by Dr. J. J. Quiney Jr. Coroner Martin J. Bechtel said death was caused by a heart attack.

Mr. Fehr was elected district attorney on the Republican ticket in 1944 and served for four years. He was defeated for a second term in 1948 and in his bid for election as common pleas judge in 1949.

Born in Tatamy Nov. 5, 1898, he was the only son of Mrs. Ella S. Messinger Fehr and the late Eugene C. Fehr. Employees Association.

He retained his membership from childhood in Forks Salem Evangelical and Reformed Church, but was active in St. John's Evangelical and Reformed Church, Nazareth, where he taught the married ladies Bible class for 25 years until last spring.

He also was a member of Whitfield Lodge 622, F&AM, Nazareth; the Odd Fellows; Harold V. Knecht Post 415, American Legion, Nazareth; the Students Army Training Corps. while a student at Lafayette College; Sons of Union Veterans; Red Men; Easton Aerie 111, Fraternal Order of Eagles; Easton Elks Lodge 121; Loyal Order of Moose Lodge 45 in Easton; Pomfret Club, Easton; Bethlehem Club; Vesper Club of Philadelphia; McKinley Club, Easton; Nazareth YMCA, and various rod and gun clubs and volunteer fire companies.

A sports enthusiast for many years, Mr. Fehr was active in promoting the Nazareth team in the old Bi-State Baseball League in the 1920s. The team, one of the best in Nazareth's history, won the league championship in 1924. He also assisted in promoting Nazareth teams in the former North Atlantic professional baseball league a few years ago.

At Lafayette, he was a reserve catcher on the baseball squad during his student days. He followed all Lafayette athletic teams and was a familiar figure at football, basketball, baseball and other games in which college teams took part.

Mr. Fehr served frequently as toastmaster at athletic and civic dinners and banquets, and was in demand as a speaker. He was toastmaster at numerous events sponsored by the Four-County Firemen's Association and other organizations. At Lafayette he became a member of Chi Phi social fraternity. He was elected marshal of his class in his senior year.

TWO MEN KILLED WHEN CAR STRIKES ANOTHER AND UPSETS

Hope-Bridgeville Road Scene of Double Fatal Accident Early Last Saturday Evening

Henry H. Stine, 59, of Phillipsburg, and Clark E. Boerstler, 38, of Nazareth, were killed early last Saturday evening when the automobile in which they were traveling on the Bridgeville-Hope road upset in front of the farm of James Frome. Boerstler, the driver, was killed instantly. Stine died on his way to Warren Hospital, Phillipsburg.

A slight collision with another automobile traveling in the same direction was the cause of the fatal accident. The two men were artesian well diggers, and had been working at the home of Clarence Jones, of Johnsonburg. They were traveling at a high rate of speed, according to witnesses.

The place where the accident occurred is at the foot of a slight incline near a curve on the concrete road leading from Hope to Bridgeville. Boerstler, in attempting to pass a machine driven by Fred Matthews, of Lambertville, hooked the latter's left rear mud guard. Boerstler was traveling in a light car and the impact with the other machine forced him to travel diagonally across the road. In this manner the machine skidded across the highway and when it left the concrete it turned over twice, hurdled a stone wall and landed in a field. The men were thrown out, both of them striking on their heads. Fractured skulls were given as the cause of death in each case.

An examination of the machine after it had been removed to a garage in Hope showed that the steering gear had locked.

A boy working on the Frome farm saw the accident and immediately summoned help. County Physician Cummins was called from Belvidere and Trooper Austin from Washington. Charles Fichtel, of Oxford, was also on the scene in a short time.

Stine still showed signs of life and Dr. Cummins ordered him placed in a truck driven by Harold Scholz, of Belvidere, and taken to the hospital. Scholz had traveled only a short distance when he was met by the ambulance from Warren Hospital. Stine was transferred to the ambulance but he died before it reached Belvidere.

Both bodies were removed to the morgue of Undertaker Van Blarcom, of Belvidere. Boerstler's body was claimed on Saturday night and Stine's body was removed on Sunday afternoon. Dr. Cummins issued certificates of accidental death.

In the Matthews machine were Mrs. Fred Matthews, Miss Julia Hoffman, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wilson all of Lambertville. They were allowed to proceed after they had furnished Trooper Austin with all the particulars. Their machine was only slightly damaged. A bent fender was the extent of the damages.

Stine resided at 390 Washington street, Phillipsburg. He is survived by his wife, seven children, Floyd and George Stine, of Easton, Lillian, Harry, Florence, Stanley and Ruth Stine, of Phillipsburg, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Stine, of Easton.

Boerstler resided with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Boerstler, 220 Prospect street, Nazareth. He was unmarried. Besides his parents he leaves two sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Howard Kessler, Nazareth; Mrs. William Doninger, Philadelphia, Charles Boerstler, Easton, and William Boerstler Jr., Nazareth.

Boerstler was a member of the Moravian church at Nazareth, Odd Fellows and Elks Lodge of Easton, Eagles Lodge, Bethlehem, Harold V. She died on 4 Nov 2003 in Warren Co., IA and was buried in Liberty Center Cemetery, Liberty Center, Warren Co., IA.

In 1993 Helen (Baker) Lester was living at 2242 145th Ave., Milo, Iowa, 50166.

Helen remembers "I have seen many great changes in my lifetime from mud roads and very few cars to paved roads and air flights to any place you wish to go.

I was born near Liberty Center, Warren County, Iowa, in a rural home where my parents lived almost 70 years. The house had two rooms upstairs and four down with a screened porch. It was plain but neat. It still stands with additions and improvements. Two great grandchildren live there at present.

I have a brother, Walker Baker, who lives near here. We both live within three miles of the farm George Blattenberg purchased in 1862 when he came to Warren County.

One of the most vivid and pleasant memories of my childhood is visiting my grandmother Hannah, my father's mother, who lived in the big, square, white house a half mile up the road. She died when I was 14 years old, but she left great memories for me and all who knew her.

One sad experience I had at her house was being present when my great grandmother, Mary, who was knitting socks by the kitchen window, slumped from her chair to the floor. Grandma Hannah asked if I thought I could go to the barn and get Frank who was milking the cows. It was a cold, rainy November morning, but I made it although I was only six years old. The funeral was held in the family home. My future husband's grandfather, M.E. Young, a primitive Baptist, conducted the funeral services.

I attended a country school and often walked home for my lunch. I went to Liberty Center High School and two years to Simpson College in Indianola, Iowa. I taught school one year and then married Guy Lester, a friend from high school days, in 1934.

Guy and I belong to the Green Plain United Methodist Church, a country church that we have attended for 43 years.

We are Democrats but vote for the candidate that, in our opinion, is the best person.

We have traveled in all but three states plus Europe and the British Isles. We loved the Rhine River boat trip where our ancestors traveled as they started to the United States many years ago.

Mercury cars seem to be a good choice for our way of traveling since they are not too fancy but dependable.

Most of our family live in a cluster (you might say) so it is easy for us to be together for picnics, family gatherings, Christmas, and many Sunday night suppers.

I love to cook especially for my grandchildren. Homemade dinner rolls, steak or turkey with plenty of mashed potatoes and gravy are favorites.

We have a family room with an attractive stone fire place at one end. One or more of our grandchildren are often on the floor enjoying the warmth and beauty of the fire.

Guy and I have collected antiques for many years. Our special interests include Indian artifacts such as stone axes, arrows, trade beads, and baskets. Recently turtles are also of much interest to Guy."

1114. John Ramsey Plattenburg (Jesse T. Plattenburg, John Wesley Plattenburg, Joshua Young Plattenburg, George Plattenburg, Johannes Blattenberger, Johannes Ludwig Blattenberger, Georg, Georg, Christophorus) was born on 28 Jan 1888 in New Cumberland, Hancock Co., WV. He died on 4 Feb 1950 in Steubenville, OH and was buried in New Cumberland Cemetery, New Cumberland, Hancock Co., WV.

John R. Plattenburg received his education in the public schools of New Cumberland and practically grew up in the office of his grandfather's and father's newspaper. From early youth he has been perfectly familiar with its every detail of preparation, make-up and production, and since the death of his father had taken over the duties of editor and publisher. He is now producing an attractive, interesting and thoroughly reliable eight-page, seven-column paper, which has a wide circulation throughout Hancock and the surrounding counties in this part of the state, and which wields a distinct influence in directing public opinion and action. Mr. Plattenburg is a democrat. He has a number of business and social connections and has taken an active part in civic affairs. During the World War he served for 13 months in the adjutant general's department at Camp Johnson. The "History of West Virginia, Old and New", Published 1923, The American Historical Society, Inc., Chicago and New York, Volume III, pg. 274, Hancock County)

JOHN R. PLATTENBURG. Three generations of the Plattenburg family have had as their chief business interest the editing and publishing of the Hancock County Courier, now published at New Cumberland by John B. Plattenburg, the grandson of the original founder. This newspaper has been in existence for more than a half a century, during which time it has become a part of the daily lives of the people of the county, whose opinions it largely moulds and whose actions it greatly influences.

John R. Plattenburg was born at New Cumberland, January 28, 1888, a son of Jesse T. and Lou (Lockhart) Plattenburg. His grandfather, J. W. Plattenburg, was born in Illinois, where his parents had been pioneers, and in young manhood adopted the vocation of teaching. This he followed for several years, in the course of which he went to Wellsburg, West Virginia, and there learned the printer's trade. Later, as a journeyman, he set the first line of type on the old Wheeling Intelligencer, His first newspaper, the Wellsburg News, was founded about 1859, and. was still being published when Mr. Plattenburg joined the Union Army during the war between the states as a captain of West Virginia infantry. He was wounded during his service, being shot through the shoulder, but continued in the army until the close of the war, when he resumed the printer's trade. In 1869, at Pughtown, then the county seat of Hancock County, he established the first newspaper in the county, known then, as now, as the Hancock County Courier. It was a four-page, six-column publication, democratic in its policies, and while its form and style have changed to some extent during the fifty-three years of its existence, its politics have remained unwaveringly the same. The paper continued to be published at Pughtown until 1895, with Mr. Plattenburg as editor and publisher, but in that year the county seat was removed to New Cumberland, and the paper went with the seat of government. The founder continued as its active head until his death in 1907, at the age of seventy-seven years. A good newspaper man and a capable writer, he made the publication well known and its articles and editorials were widely quoted by contemporaries in the journalistic field. His widow, who was Sarah Wetheral, of Wellsburg, survives at an advanced age.

At the time of his death J. W. Plattenbrg was succeeded in the ownership of the paper by his son Jesse T. Plattenburg, who died five years later, in 1912, after a career which had been devoted entirely to the paper. While attending Bethany College he met Lou Lockhart, also a student, and they did not wait until their graduation to be married. They became the parents of four children: Joseph L., who is identified with the Weirton (West Virginia) Steel Corporation; John B., of this notice; Julia, who is the wife of T. T. Bambrick; and Mary, the wife of A. O. Dorman.

1157. May Flora Blottenberger (Henry Arvel Blottenberger, Christian N. Blottenberger, Joseph Blottenberger, Christian Blattenberger, Johannes Blattenberger, Johannes Ludwig Blattenberger, Georg, Georg, Christophorus) was born on 4 May 1897 in Landisville, Lancaster Co., PA. She died in 1980 in Lancaster, Lancaster Co., PA and was buried in 1980 in Rohrerstown Cemetery, Rohrerstown, Lancaster Co., PA.

May Flora (Blottenberger) Smith lived her entire married life in a brick rowhouse at 519 Pearl St., Lancaster.

She was raised at Donegal Springs on a farm on the outskirts of Lancaster, PA. She received a formal education through the eighth grade and married after World War I. Her life thereafter was one of a mother, grand mother and housewife. She was a fine cook and spent a great deal of time preparing Pennsylvania Dutch food and shellfish dishes even though she never ate seafood of any kind herself.

From the basement to the upstairs cedar closet, she kept an immaculate home. She was endlessly stooping to pick lint off the carpets, and sweeping the front porch with such vigor that I suspect the top layers of concrete ended up in the dustpan. The tiny backyard of the house was often fragrant with the clean smell of freshly washed sheets and other laundry as she hung them out to dry on an ingenious clothesline arrangement. All around the perimeter she raised and tended a vibrant, tidy arrangement of rosebushes and other flowers. Her husband would help with trimming the hedges and such.

She was also a highly talented knitter and needleworker and knitted enormous, beautiful, and elaborately designed woolen Christmas stockings for family members. She would sit quietly in the evenings in the living room chair she favored, the soft yellow lamp beside her, perfecting her tight weave--so tight, in fact, that the matching balaclava and set of hand warmers she knitted for her husband to use when he joined the Marines for World War I are still in perfect condition and still used by her grandson in the harsh Montana winters.

She also loved jigsaw puzzles, and would always bring out a big one during family visits. She would warmly praise (no doubt exaggerate) the skills of her grandchildren at the puzzles and at whatever else they were doing. She also enjoyed playing weekly games of bridge with her women friends and kept the men, who held weekly games of poker, well supplied with beer, pretzels, and Charles Chips. She let the men supply their own cigars.

She always dressed in the type of clothing: a full length cotton dress with old fashioned black women's oxfords with heels. (Above memories provided by Thompson Richard Smith in 1993.)

May married Richard H. Smith, son of Charles H. Smith, on 10 Jan 1922. Richard was born on 20 Aug 1898 in Lancaster, Lancaster Co., PA. He died in 1981 in Lancaster, Lancaster Co., PA and was buried in 1981 in Rohrerstown Cemetery, Rohrerstown, Lancaster Co., PA.

Richard H. Smith served in the US Marine Corp. in WW I and was stationed mostly in Galveston, TX.

He came from a Catholic German family, the Schmidts, that migrated to PA in 1848 from the Berlin area. Sometime in 1888, possibly at a wedding, the family name was changed to Smith. His father, Charles H. Smith, was a tailor and owner of a laundry in Lancaster. At a fairly young age, Richard decided that Catholicism was not for him and never again participated in a mass. He received a formal education through the sixth grade.

Before and after serving in the Marines, he apprenticed at Zook's Jewerly Store in downtown Lancaster, eventually becoming an expert jeweler, engraver, watch and clock repairman, and an able businessman. He kept a workbench in the basement that was filled with a wondrous assortment of fine artisanal tools. After his retirement and until the very last months of his life, he continued to repair and engrave clocks and watches brought to him by devoted customers who never knew a better jeweler. A chiming mantelpiece clock that he electrified some thirty years ago still keeps perfect time in his grandson's house in Montana.

In 1960 he became the president of Zook's, which he closed in 1965 as large chain jewelers began moving into the area. He was elected Comptroller of Lancaster in 1959 on the Republican ticket and served on the city planning commission from 1957 to 1963. He was head of the local draft board during World War II and an active member and officer of American Legion Post 34. He was also known by many people as having expert knowledge of small arms. He was an avid Phillies fan--the small transistor radio by his chair at the kitchen table was always tuned to the Phillies station.

He played in Lancaster's first boy's league, the McClain League, from 1912 to 1916. He always dressed in the same type of clothing--suit pants and a white shirt over a white tank undershirt. His coat and tie, and maybe a felt fedora, would come out if he was heading into the city. (From memories of his grandfather provided by Thompson R. Smith)

George attended Camp Curtain grade school in Harrisburg through grade nine. He started the 10th grade in Harrisburg Tech school but quit school before completing the 10th grade. In 1917 he worked for Bethlehem Steel Corporation as a mail carrier or messenger. In 1919 he changed jobs and went to work for the Pennsylvania Railroad as an apprentice machinist. As the result of a railroad strike he went to work for the American Die and Tool Company in 1923 as an apprentice machinist. In October 1924 he went to work for the Gulf Oil Company as a pipefitter's helper. He worked in various positions at Gulf and was promoted to plant manager in 1936. He retained this position until his retirement in 1958. After retirement he worked part time at West Shore Auto Parts which was a business that had been established by Bob Petry who had been a speciality salesman for Gulf Oil. In 1965 he decided it was time for full retirement and quit his association with the West Shore Auto Parts. George and his family attended Bethany Chapel, a mission church of Pine Street Presbyterian Church. The family attended Sunday School regularly. In 1941 Bethany Chapel was closed and the family then attended Pine Street Presbyterian Church in downtown Harrisburg. George was active in politics and served as Judge of Elections at the polling place on Election Day. He was also active in the Shamrock Volunteer Fire Company located at 15th and Herr Street.

During World War II he served as an Air Raid Warden and was active in other Civil Defense activities. For recreation he enjoyed a good game of pinochle with friends and relatives on Friday night. He also collected postage stamps. He had to give up both of these activities in his 80th year due to failing eyesight. In May 1984 he suffered a second stroke which left him a partial invalid and totally blind. During the next year he had several minor strokes which made him bedfast. Martha A. Hatfield met her husband, George Blessing, in June 1921 at a baseball game being played in the field beside the Shamrock Fire Company at 15th and Herr Streets, Harrisburg, Pa. Martha's Uncle George and George Blessing were the score keepers and when Martha would call to her uncle for the score George Blessing would always answer. Martha quit school in the 10th grade while attending Central High. After quitting school she worked for a box factory. In 1921 she went to work for Bell Telephone and worked there for several years. Martha enjoyed children and seemed always to have a house full. She was an expert seamstress and baker. Martha was born on Bailey Street in Harrisburg. Martha and George were married by Reverend J. Harold Thompson on February 19, 1925. Martha and George made their home at the following places:

1434 Market Street, Harrisburg, Pa.	1925 to 1926
401 West Simpson Street, Mechanicsburg, Pa.	1926 to 1927
1801 Boas Street, Harrisburg, Pa.	1927 to 1944
1809 Boas Street, Harrisburg, Pa.	1944 to 1961
7 Hunter Lane, Camp Hill, Pa.	1961 to Death

Aldrich was the surname of one of Martha's mother's Sunday School teachers.

The following is from an album written for her by her son George on the occasion of her 90th birthday:

THIS IS YOUR LIFE - MARTHA ALDRICH BLESSING

Your life began on August 25th, 1903 on Bailey Street in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. You were the first born of John D. Hatfield and Mary C. Arnold Hatfield. You and your parents later moved to Hemlock Street and still later you moved to 1839 North Seventh Street, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. It wasn't long before you were joined by a brother Henry and two sisters Gladys and Mary Ellen. You and your family later moved to 1269 South 13th Street, Harrisburg. You lived at this address when you began school at Foose Elementary School close to your home on 13th Street. You finished elementary school and started to Edison Jr. High School in its opening year. For some reason Martha when you started to Central high School in the 10th grade you didn't like the school and rumor has it that it was because there were no boys in the school. At any rate you ended your schooling at age 16 in 1919 and began working at a box factory. I'm sure you had interests in other than boys in those early years but I haven't been able to find out what they were. That is not quite true because I know you were very involved with your church. You attended Bethany Church on Cameron Street in Harrisburg and eventually became a Sunday School teacher for the younger children. In early 1921 you left the box factory and went to work for the Bell Telephone Company where you remained until February 1925.

You met your future husband, George Blessing, who also attended Bethany Church at a baseball game in June of 1921. The game was being played in the field adjacent to the Shamrock Fire House at 15th and Herr Street in Harrisburg. Your Uncle George was the official score keeper and each time you would call him and ask what the score was George Blessing would always answer. After 4 years which must have been a heated courtship you finally said yes and you and George were married. You and George were married by J. Harold Thompson, the pastor at Bethany, in his home on North Second Street in Harrisburg on February the 19th, 1925.

Married life began at 1434 Market Street in Harrisburg where you and George had an apartment. You lived there from 1925 until 1926 during which time your first child Doris Jean was born. Doris Jean was born at your parents home on South 13th Street on November 11th, 1925. From Market Street in Harrisburg you moved to 410 West Simpson Street, Mechanicsburg, Pa. in 1926. You and George remained there until 1927 when you bought a home at 1801 Boas Street, Harrisburg, Pa. Your second child was a boy, George, Jr. born on August 27th, 1928 at the home of your parents on South 13th Street. A month or so after the birth of George, Jr. your father died of a ruptured appendix. On November 19th, 1931 your second son, John Marion was born. John was born at home at 1801 Boas Street, Harrisburg as was your second daughter Maryellen who was born on the 27th of February 1936. Your family was now complete and you got down to the job of raising your children. All the children attended Woodward Elementary School, Edison Jr. High School and John Harris Senior High School. All the kids graduated from John Harris and the girls both earned college degrees.

Your home was always busy with children and guests. It seemed that the neighborhood children always played at your house. It was a rare Sunday that a guest didn't show up for dinner. You also had regular visitors who came on their special days; cousin Betty on Thursday, Kay Witmer on Friday, your sister Gladys and her husband John on another day and usually on Friday night you would host a Pinochle game with your sisters and their husband and boyfriend. Occasionally your brother Henry and his wife would visit also. In 1944 you and George made the big move from 1801 Boas Street to 1809 Boas Street. The routine continued and expanded with the children getting older they brought their friends home for dinner. After graduation Doris Jean joined the Nurse Cadet Corps and left home to get her training at Philadelphia General Hospital. After graduation in 1946 George Jr. better known as Buddy or Bud joined the Army and left home for several years. Your home became a little quieter for awhile which just didn't seem right so you became the second mother to one of George's employee's daughter. Her name was Patricia Monica Hevel, who was known as Molly. Molly came to live with you when she was 1 or 2 years old and stayed with you about 8 years. She helped make your life interesting and enjoyable after the departure of your own children.

The neighborhood around 18th and Boas Street was a good place for your children to grow up in. They had many friends and you had good neighbors. The Shanks, the Pies, the Aikens, the Martins, the Straws, the Barnhearts, Marion and Park who ran the candy store and many more that I can't recall. The school playground being right across the street from your house always had some activity during the summer months; baseball games, football games, shooting marbles, flipping baseball and war cards and in the evenings a game of hide-and-go-seek, kick the can or capture the flag. Marion and Park's candy store also made it real handy to get a peanut butter cup, a popsicle or a bag of potato chips. John Bauer's butcher shop and the American Store all within 100 yards from your front door also made shopping easy for you. Your neighborhood also had a barber shop run by Fritz Bauer. I think Martha that you had just about everything your family needed within the block you lived in. George retired from Gulf Oil Corp. in 1955 but quickly secured another job with Petrie Auto Parts. Bob Petrie, the owner, was a friend of George's from Gulf Oil. As the neighborhood aged and the children grew up things began to change. Your house was larger now than you needed and the two of you considered a move. Many of your neighbors had already moved so the two of you decided it was time for your next move. Your son John and his wife lived on the West Shore and you thought that you too would like living there. A house on the same street that John lived on went up for sale and you and George decided that was for you. The big move was made in 1961.

Shortly before the move your daughter, Doris Jean, and her new son Richard, moved in with you to continue their life in the Harrisburg area. You once again had a baby in the house and you were ready to start the process of raising your grandson. Doris began working for the state and your lives settled down again into a routine. George continued working for Bob Petrie until 1965 when he decided it was time to really retire. You and George looked after the welfare of your children and were always there to help in time of need. In 1975 you celebrated your 50th wedding anniversary with a party in the Social Room of your church, Pine Street Presbyterian Church, in Harrisburg.

Your children and their families, your brother and sisters with their spouses and many of your old friends attended. A good time was had by all. Your anniversary was a special occasion but you didn't need a special occasion to have a party or a picnic. Almost every holiday in the summer beginning with Memorial Day and ending with Labor Day the two of you with help from your family would host a picnic in your backyard. The grandchildren and some of your own children would get a wiffle ball game started while the older people would pitch horse shoes, play cards or just sit around reminisce. After dark there would be fireworks from City Island and from your vantage point in Camp Hill you could watch them without obstruction or the necessity of going to another point to view them.

In 1977 George was hospitalized for a week or two but recovered completely and continued his routine until about 1982 when he had a stroke. George had been hospitalized some years earlier for an eye operation and prior to that for appendicitis but was in generally good health until his stroke in 1982. He experienced another stroke in 1984 and was hospitalized once again. This time he neglected or the hospital neglected to see that he got his eye drops for glaucoma and as a result he eventually became blind. The last year or so of his life you unselfishly provided all the care and attention he required. With his death in 1986 you were left alone with your daughter Doris and her son Richard who was now a man. You continued to look after the both of them and provide them with a home. Life was lonely without George but you kept busy doing for others and enjoying your grand children and great grandchildren. In 1989 (at age 86) you flew alone to Arizona to visit you son Bud (George, Jr.). Again in 1990 with Doris and Richard you traveled west to see the sights and to visit Bud once again. You are now in your twilight years at age 90 and certainly looking back you can and should be proud and satisfied with the life you have lived and continue to live. Your devotion to your family and your church are unparalleled and I'm sure the Big Guy is reserving a place for you.

Man, Two Boys Hurt Fatally In Area Accidents

Victims are Kleedorfer and Check Children, Edward Creveling

Sledding accidents and an automobile crash brought death to three persons yesterday in the Easton-Phillipsburg area. Two of the victims were children.

The dead were:

Roy Kleedorfer, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kleedorfer, of Phillipsburg R.D. 1, fatally injured when his sled struck an automobile in Phillipsburg.

Richard Check, 12, son of Mrs. Charles Hostinar, of Nazareth R.D. 1, hurt fatally by an automobile while coasting near Nazareth.

Edward Creveling, 69, of Main street, Hampton, a retired farmer, killed instantly when an automobile struck a guard rail on Route 69 at Hampton.

The Kleedorfer child, one of five sons, died in Warren Hospital at 11:55 p.m., about 12 hours after he was injured. The youngster, a sixth-grade pupil at Delaware Park School, suffered internal injuries and a fracture of the collarbone when the sled on which he was riding ran into the left front wheel of an automobile at North Main street near the foot of the Delaware Park hill. He entered the intersection after coasting down the steep ice-glazed hill.

The accident happened shortly after noon. All pupils of Delaware Park School had been dismissed at 9:30 a.m., less than three hours before the accident, because of a failure in the school heating system. The car was driven by Harley W. Fulmer, 45, of 493 Corliss Ave., Phillipsburg. Police said he will be arraigned tomorrow before Phillipsburg Magistrate J. Francis Moroney on a technical charge of causing death by automobile.

The boy was taken to Warren Hospital by the Phillipsburg Emergency Squad. He lived just outside Phillipsburg, a short distance from the hill on which he was coasting. Patrolmen Carmen A. Noto and Robert Davis investigated.

The child was born at Easton Hospital. He would have been 12 years old on Feb. 16.

Surviving, in addition to his parents, are four brothers, Albert Jr., Vale, Richard, and William, all at home; his maternal grandfather, Roy Swope, and his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Edward Gangwer, both of Easton. His mother is the former Erma Swope, one-time Easton resident.

1721. Robert Frederick Plattenberger (Luther Wetzel Plattenberger, Robert Charles Plattenberger, Aaron John Plattenberger, Philip Plattenberger, Christian Ludwig Plattenberger, Johannes Ludwig Blattenberger, Georg, Georg, Christophorus) was born on 15 Nov 1921 in Mt. Vernon, Linn Co., IA.

In 1984 Robert F. Plattenberger was living at Martelle, Iowa 52305.

Robert wrote: "I was born on the family farm in an old house up on a hilltop. My sister, Mary, was also born on that farm. In 1927 my folks bought a small farm west of Mt. Vernon where we lived until I was through school. I went to Iowa State College for one year and then I rented my grandmother's farm. I had very little money but it was a good time to make a start. In 1942 farm prices began to improve. I was a 4F in the draft (medical exemption).

I think it was 1943 that I started going out with Roberta, to whom I am now married. Her father was an attorney and friend of the family. I went to him to make out my first income tax return. I'm sure he didn't think much of my prospects when he found I had a net profit for the year of $143.00.

In the fall of 1944 my dad and I in partnership bought what is now the home farm at Martelle, Iowa. This was a large farm but in poor condition.

I persuaded Roberta to quit college and marry me. We moved on the farm early in 1945. Our daughters were born in 1945, 1947, 1949, and 1951. Those years were babies, paying for land, and a new house in 1951.

In 1952 my dad sold his half of the organization to my sister's husband, Ellis Lambertsen. Mary and Ellis had three boys born in 1946, 1948, and 1950. This partnership lasted until 1980 when I retired.

During the 28 years of the partnership we upgraded the farm, bought more land, had some good vacations. The girls all went through college and all seven of the cousins were married.

My sister's middle son, Dan, is now the primary farmer. There are no Plattenberger boys in our group.

We built a small house in Zapata, Texas a couple miles from the Rio Grande. We spend the winter months there, mostly fishing.

I am an omnivorous reader and curious about everything. We spend a good deal of time helping and interfering with our 10 grandchildren.

Three years ago (1990), we bought an old railroad right-of-way and some adjoining swamp. We have planted 300 trees and are protecting several varieties of wild flowers."

Letter from Robert Plattenberger 31 December 2006:

Roberta and I are 81 and 85. We still live on the farm, where mostly I do the heavy looking on. We also keep track of our children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren.

She died on 29 Jul 2015 and was buried in Greenlawn Memorial Park, Akron, Summit Co., OH.

Elva Irene Poth (nee Miller)

"When I fly away..." It's a phrase Elva Poth always used to describe her passing, and a fitting one according to anyone who knew her. She was grandma to everyone and an angel in her family's eyes – so it came as no surprise that she had to fly home to be with the Lord on Wednesday, July 29, 2015.

Born 1914 in Sharon Center (Medina County), Ohio, Elva was always the first to admit that she never dreamed she would live to be a centennial – but she was thankful for every day. She grew up in a large family in Doylestown, Ohio, and was the last surviving member of her siblings.

A master crafter who always stayed busy, Elva's gift of artistry was undeniable. Whether she was woodcarving, crocheting, knitting, or sewing, her beautiful creations were appreciated by all...and her gifts will be treasured by her family and friends for years to come. She also enjoyed gardening, and her lovely flower beds were admired by many.

Elva was also preceded in death by her loving husband of 51 years, Lorson J. Poth, Sr., and son Larson J. Poth, Jr., as well as numerous other loved ones.

Interment will be at Greenlawn Memorial Park.

1971. Arline Elizabeth Blottenberger (Charles Arvel Blottenberger, Henry Arvel Blottenberger, Christian N. Blottenberger, Joseph Blottenberger, Christian Blattenberger, Johannes Blattenberger, Johannes Ludwig Blattenberger, Georg, Georg, Christophorus) was born on 5 Oct 1917 in Philadelphia, Philadelphia Co., PA. She died on 26 Jan 2012 in West Chester, Chester Co., PA.

In 1993 Arline E. (Blottenberger) Davis was living at 10 Reservoir Rd., West Chester, PA 19380.

Arline remembered "After Mother and Daddy Blottenberger were married June 2, 1914 in Landisville, Lancaster Co. , they moved and settled in their home at 1526 Edgewood St., Phila., PA. We three children were born at this address (1 boy and 2 girls). From the time I was able to walk it seemed I was always into some mischief and always got spanked for it. I love fun and people. Had all the childhood diseases, mumps, whooping cough, measles, chicken pox, almost mastoiditis, and pleurisy.

My brother Christian Arvel was the oldest and I always looked up to him, until I caught onto his pranks then I rebelled even though I still loved him.

My sister Mary Kathryn is the youngest and we were very close till it came to boy friend time and then sometimes we shared the same fellow, because we were 18 months apart, and then there was rivalry between us.

Our house in Phila. was very small, the same for the yard. My sister and I shared a bedroom and there was two other bedrooms. We moved to Berwyn, PA when I was 5 years old, in 1923, then we had plenty of room for playing games with our friends. School was one block away with plenty of gym things to play on. An average student but sports meant more to me. I just loved them. Even though I played paper dolls and made their own clothes and furniture, with my best girlfriend named Dot Hughes. She was born in Phila. on my birthday (the same age), then moved to Berwyn the same month we did. But we never met till we both started 1st grade. What a surprise. Her brother married my sister.

As I said before I was always into trouble and our Mother was the disciplinarian in the family. Daddy was very easy going and never raised his voice. But when Mother spoke, we knew to be good.

We visited our relatives on Mother's side of the family at their big farm and we always had the best time with our cousins. Had plenty of good food that was the best ever. We never wanted to go home when it was time to leave. Of course they had all kinds of farm animals and we just loved feeding them. This was our Sunday outings if we didn't pack a picnic lunch by a stream or go picking wild berries and fruits.

Mother (a Mennonite) and Daddy did not belong to a church, so we kids were never pushed into any religion. Our only association would be to Sunday School through our friends.

My High School was T.E. (Tredyffrin and Easttown Townships) in Berwyn and I graduated with the class of 1936. I was active in all the sports, Sr. class school play, and one year book.

We worked on benefits through our school years to raise enough money for when we became seniors we went to Washington, DC for three days. Very educational and a lot of fun. Three of we girls left the hotel at night and thought we were getting away with something, but when we got back the teachers were waiting for us so you know we got scolded.

At home we three kids had our chores to do each day and special ones on Saturday. And if we did them and did them right, Mother would give us enough money for train fare to the next town and a movie. That was a big treat. The only animals we ever had were cats and they were all named "Boots", one after another.

Mother made most of our clothes and I was the lucky one because I would get the new dress and my sister would get the hand me downs.

My husband Ed and I were introduced by my brother-in-law, Bob Hughes, because he and Ed were inducted into the Army on June 6, 1941. Ed later changed to the Air Force and was sent to Texas for his training. I went down by train alone (because I never could leave my Mother to stay any place without her) so she was amazed when I left Xmas Eve alone and we were married Dec. 31, 1942 at 9:00 PM in the Presbyterian Church in San Antonio. One other couple stood for us. Ed could only get New Years Day off.

At this time I was working for the Bell Telephone Company as a switchboard operator for six years. But when I knew I was getting married, I quit and headed for Texas. Our first child was born in Castroville, Texas and we came back to West Chester to live in Ed's Mother's third floor apartment when he was 8 months old. Ed was being shipped overseas. Since then we had 2 girls and after the children were grown and on their own, Ed and I and another couple did a lot of traveling, which we all enjoyed so much. We were able to say we have been in every state of the union and some foreign countries, also the Caribbean Islands.

Since Ed has retired we took a trip to Germany and visited the Blattenbergers over there. All in all we had a good life and a good marriage."

He died on 3 Nov 2003 in New York City, NY.

Richard B. Smith grew up in Lancaster until winning a scholarship to Yale University out of McCaskey High School.

He won the best freshman swimmer award at Yale at a time when Yale's teams ranked near the top nationally. A year after graduation from Yale, he entered law school at the University of Pennsylvania, where he met his future wife, Mary Wells Detwiler, who was an undergraduate. They married in 1954. During his career, he worked as a lawyer in New York (1955-67), as a Commissioner at the Securities and Exchange Commission in Washington, DC appointed by President Lyndon B. Johnson (1967-71), and as a partner at the NY City law firm of Davis, Polk, and Wardwell (1971-90). He was active in the Republican Party and in civic affairs throughout his career, and headed Mayor Ed Koch's Taxi Commission during the 1980's to reform the taxi industry. He retired in 1990 but continued to work most days showing more energy than many men thirty years his junior. He was a member of the Wall Street Club, River Club, Riverdale Yacht Club, and Chevy Chase Club in Washington, DC.

As a boy he would make his way out to Tucquan Glen, in the vicinity of the Susquehanna River, a wonderful wooded area of ravine and hills and rhododendron bushes. He passed this love of the woods onto his children. He took his family on frequent trips to the Adirondack Mountains in upstate New York and other relatively wild places. He loved tennis, swimming, canoeing, hiking, and camping. He was a voracious reader, and especially loved history, and deeply loved classical music, particularly Beethoven and Brahms, and the great Protestant organ and choir music. For decades he participated in the messiah sign-in at Lincoln Center in NYC. (From information provided by his son, Thompson R. Smith.)

Richard married (1) Mary Wells Detwiler, daughter of Daniel L. Detweiler and Thelma Thompson, on 5 Jun 1954 in Herndon, VA. The marriage ended in divorce. Mary was born on 14 Oct 1931 in Washington, DC and was christened in Episcopal Church, Herndon, VA. She died on 10 Mar 2011 in Douarnenez, France.

Mary W. (Detwiler) Smith Pern worked during her career as a writer, editor, and development director for non-profit groups. She remarried John Pern, an Englishman from Hastings, in 1980 in Salelles du Bosque, France. John's specialty was rebuilding by hand old buildings and houses into new homes. After 1980 they moved back and forth across the ocean, remodeling homes in France, West Virginia, and Oregon. In the 1990s, Mary developed her gifts in painting, and has held large exhibitions and participated in competitions in Oregon and France. Her family genealogy, incidentally, indicates a large number of German ancestors who came by boat to Philadelphia in the early eighteenth century and settled in PA. (Biography provided by son, Thompson R. Smith.)

Richard and Mary had the following children:

+ 2891 F i. Landis Marsha Smith was born on 11 Mar 1955.

+ 2892 F ii. Leslie Doris Smith was born on 21 May 1957.

YOU ARE NOT FORGOTTEN. MIKE BUCKALOO JR, I'M HIS NEPHEW. Eddie, You were a little older than me but I remember you because you were not a bully like most of the older guys. I didn't see you at the wake in Charlotte because my cousin Paul Anthony was lying in the same Chapel with you that night. I just could not handle being there. My folks never understood but I always want to remember my friend and cousin as alive and smiling. We never had counseling like they do today for loss of loved ones, but I can assure you your sacrifice will be on record forever. I pray that God will Bless all your family and you will be guarding the gates of heaven when I get there. Your friend Randy Joe Cooper.

Sid, I will never ever forget you! Me and Sid were in the same platoon and spent a lot of time at our jobs. He was in the wire section and I was in the radio section. We used to be on guard duty together. Sidney would always talk about home and the Smokey Mountains. I loved that man. I will never forget him. He was a great Friend and a super Sergeant too, well loved by all that he was over in the wire section. 1st Air Cav 2/8th 1969 Mike G Barnes. My Call Sign was: Stoney Mountain 29er Bravo, Mike Barnes.

Sister, My Brother - My Hero!!!! Eddie: There is not a day that goes by that I don't think of you. I remember when you were leaving and we sat on the bed and sang 'Leaving on a jet plane'. I try not to remember the day we received the news of your death. Instead, I remember the fishing trips we took and that smelly bait you use to make. I have told my son and granddaughter the stories about us growing up together and the good times we had. I still have some of your letters you sent to me. You always were and always will be 'My Hero'. It warms my heart to know there were people like you in my life. I miss you very much and often wonder where we would be today if you had not been taken from me at such a young age. Everyone tries to say God had a special plan for you. I still don't understand that plan, but want you to know how very PROUD I am of you and how much I miss you. I love you very much. Your little sis - Bonnie. Bonnie Bridger, 11014 Bronson Road, Clermont, FL 34711.

Cousin, My Favorite Cousin: Dearest Eddie, There isn't an April 1st that goes by that I don't recall my heartache at receiving the news you had been killed in action. I can still see myself, screaming no, no, no and crying hysterically. The day you were murdered is the day the world lost a very special person and I lost my favorite cousin. There were 2 of your friends who stood at attention at your coffin and as they stood there tears streamed from their eyes, it was heartbreaking. It was devastating for Uncle Sonny to escort your body back from Vietnam, and even more devastating when he had to present the flag to your mom, he broke down as he handed the flag to her and just grabbed onto her and they both cried. I so miss you to this very day and always think of you and wonder what your life would have been like. I remember the summer you came up to Virginia and stayed with mom, Randy, Mark and I. I loved you so and I always will! Your Loving Cousin, (Shawn) Gwen (Moreno) Goodwin. Shawn Gwen Goodwin, 2385 Griffith Lane, Melbourne, FL 32904.

He served with Headquarters and Headquarters Company, 2nd Battalion, 8th Cavalry Regiment, 1st Cavalry Division, USARV.

Mr. Kleedorfer was dead on arrival at Easton Hospital where he was taken after his car struck a utility pole on the highway near the city water plant. Kleedorfer was pronounced dead at the scene by Northampton County Deputy Coroner Gene Schoch at 12:47 a.m. Sunday. A witness told police he saw a man leave the damaged car and run into some nearby woods before police arrived on the scene. It was not known whether the unidentified man was a passenger in the car.

"Morning Call", Allentown, PA, 24 January 1984, pg. B-05:

A suit filed in Northampton County Court blames the traffic death of an Easton man on a hotel which, it claims, continued to serve him drinks when he was "visibly intoxicated."

The suit seeks more than $30,000 damages from Mineral Springs, Inc., Route 611, Forks Township, and its owner, Esther Jane Eich. It was started by Denise Bartholomay, 525 Northampton St., and William Kleedorfer, 352 Industrial Drive, both of Easton, for the estate of Albert Kleedorfer. Albert Kleedorfer died last Aug. 14 when his car left Route 611 and hit a telephone pole at Boileau Avenue, Easton.

Bartholomay, his daughter, and William Kleedorfer, his brother, claim that Mineral Springs sold alcohol to the victim when he obviously was under the influence and "as a direct result," he was fatally hurt in the accident.

Bushkill Centre Boy, 7, Dies Of Polio At Home

Stricken One Day After Attending School Which Is Ordered Closed

A seven-year old Bushkill Township boy died yesterday afternoon at his home of polio, a day after he had attended school

The boy, Henry E. Atherholt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Atherholt, who reside in Bushkill Centre, had complained of not feeling well on Saturday. His condition was not regarded serious enough to call a physician and on Monday he went to the Chestnut school in Clearfield, Bushkill Township, as usual. He was in the second grade.

Yesterday morning, according to Dr. David F. Bachman, Northampton County coroner, the boy's condition became worse and he was kept at home. Later in the day he lapsed into a coma and died in the afternoon. Dr. Raymond G. Benjamin, of Nazareth, was called but the boy was dead when the physician arrived.

Mrs. Mina Hertz, teacher of the one-room school the boy had attended, said today that the school had been ordered closed for the rest of the week by the Bushkill Township School Board. There are 45 pupils in the school.

Dr. Bachman said that when he arrived at the Atherholt home and heard the circumstances that surrounded the boy's death, he concluded that polio was the cause. To make certain, he added, he ordered the body taken to Easton Hospital where Dr. Newton W. Larkum, pathologist, made tests. Dr. Bachman quoted Dr. Larkum as saying that tests showed definitely that the boy died of polio.

The Atherholt child is survived by his parents; a sister, Janice, and a brother, Stanley, both at home; his paternal grandparents, Mrs. and Mrs. Ernest Atherholt, of Nazareth R. D. 2, and his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Werkheiser, of Nazareth.

2716. Maurice William Prather (Maurice John Prather, Mabel Ophelia Robacker, Clara Clarissa Clewell, Jacob Levin Clewell, Elizabeth Boerstler, Jacob Boerstler, Anna Maria Blattenberger, Johannes Ludwig Blattenberger, Georg, Georg, Christophorus) was born on 6 Sep 1926 in Miami, Dade Co., FL. He died on 9 Jan 2001 in Kansas City, Jackson Co., MO and was buried in Floral Hills Cemetery, Kansas City, Jackson Co., MO.

Maurice William Prather (September 6, 1926 - January 9, 2001) was an American motion picture and still photographer and film director. He was born in Miami, Florida, the son of Maurice J. Prather, a mechanic, cabinet maker, and woodworker, and Zora M. Prather, both of them born in Missouri. Young Maurice Jr. also had a younger sister, Laura Jo, some two years his junior.

The Prather family was living in Kansas City, Missouri, by 1930, where Maurice Jr.'s father found work at a local business called Greenwood's. By the time he was in his senior year of high school, Maurice Jr. had become interested in photography and had an after-school job as an assistant cameraman and laboratory technician at the Calvin Company in Kansas City, the largest production company for industrial films in the world. Upon turning 18 in 1944, Prather did not join the armed forces as most American young people were during those wartime days (Prather may have suffered from a physical problem which prevented him from serving in the armed forces). Instead, he found work as a photographer of wartime airplanes for North American Aviation in Kansas City. In 1945, he became an engineering photographer for Trans World Airlines (TWA), who for many years had a hub in Kansas City. Still living with his parents in Kansas City, Prather then returned to the Calvin Company as an assistant cameraman for industrial films once again. This was the longest Prather held onto a job during these early days in Kansas City--two years (1946-1948). For some reason, he decided to abandon photography altogether for a one-year stint as a schedule clerk at a Sears-Roebuck department store in Kansas City. In 1949, he decided to get a college education and so enrolled in the journalism program at the University of Kansas in Lawrence, Kansas.

While at KU, Prather got a part-time job at the local Centron Corporation film studio, working as a photographer once again on educational and industrial short films. Prather's college activities included writing for the University Daily Kansan newspaper at KU and writing and photographing with several other students a "highlight book" of the 1951-52 season of the KU Jayhawks basketball team. Prather completed his journalism degree in June, 1953, and immediately went to work full-time at Centron. Prather put in nearly ten years at Centron, making over one hundred educational and industrial films, many of them prize-winners. Other than motion picture and still photography, he did sound recording on films and after a while began to direct films. It was while at Centron that Prather met his wife, Rozanne, whom he married in the late 1950s. He also first became acquainted with director Herk Harvey.

In 1959, Centron's camera shop, Mosser-Wolf Cameras, was sold to Prather and several business partners who opened Photon Cameras, a successful camera retail store and portrait studio that Prather served as an owner-operator of until his leaving Lawrence in 1962. In 1961, Prather photographed Carnival of Souls, Herk Harvey's Lawrence-produced feature film whose groundbreaking cinematography influenced the horror and science fiction film genres, although the movie didn't really find its audience until 1989. By the time Carnival of Souls was released in late 1962, Prather had left Lawrence with his wife to work as services coordinator and photographer for Horizon Productions, a small, Kansas City-based nontheatrical film production studio. In 1967, Prather moved over to Coleman Film Enterprises, another educational film company, which was headquartered in Shawnee Mission, Kansas. Prather worked there as a photographer until 1977, when he and his wife (who had by this time had two daughters, Anne and Stefanie), moved to California where Prather attempted to give a Hollywood filmmaking career a try. He had little success. "My wife and I had lived in California and really didn't feel like moving back there," Prather said in a 2000 interview in Kansas City after the revival of interest in Carnival of Souls. "I did a lot of movie work and all of the still work for Centron. I prefer to do still photography. I came here to Kansas City [in 1983] and I got out of the motion picture business because it was too expensive. A lot of the stuff I did was food photography. I love food photography. I also did portraits to please myself, not to please the person I was photographing. You get a little old lady saying, 'Make me look like I'm 20 years old.'"

The revival of interest in his old feature film Carnival of Souls during the 1990s was a pleasant surprise for Prather, but for some reason he did not attend the 1989 reunion of the film's cast and crew in Lawrence, even though he was already listed in the advertisements and programs for the event as one of the featured speakers during the ceremonies. Prather died at the age of 74 on January 9, 2001, at his home in Kansas City, of an unspecified cause, most likely renal failure. However, Prather will remain well-known and widely praised for his innovative and creative photography in Carnival of Souls, as the film continues to be viewed in homes and theaters and aired on television, amazingly, after nearly forty years, when most black-and-white, low-budget films from the 1960s were long forgotten after less than only two or three years.
