

Blattenberger / Plattenberger Geneology

First Generation

1. Christophorus Blattenburger was born in Hof Plattenberg, Bavaria, Germany.

The marriage of Christoph Blattenburger to Barbara Eder appears in the marriage register of the Catholic Church of Buchbach, Germany. The register entry shows that Christoph was a farmer's son from Platenberg (aka. Hof Plattenberg) and that Barbara Eder was a farmer's daughter from the parsonage of Ranoldsberg.

This marriage record also gave the names of Christoph's parents, Johannes and Elisabeth Plattenberger, and of Barbara's father, Simon Eder. The name of Barbara's mother was not given and she may have been deceased by the date of the marriage in June of 1633.

Christoph may have had a second wife named "Ursula".

Christophorus married Barbara Eder, daughter of Simon Eder, on 7 Jun 1633 in Buchbach, Germany. Barbara was born in Reynoldsberg, Germany.

They had the following children:

- + 2 M i. Georg Blattenburger Sr. was born on 16 Apr 1639.

Second Generation

2. Georg Blattenburger Sr. (Christophorus) was born on 16 Apr 1639 in Hof Plattenberg, Bavaria, Germany.

Georg married Anna Mayrhofer, daughter of Georg Mayrhofer, on 17 Jan 1668 in Bavaria, Germany. Anna was born in Velden Vils, Germany.

Velden Vils was a parish in Germany

Georg and Anna had the following children:

- + 3 M i. Georg Blattenburger Jr. was born on 14 Aug 1673.

Third Generation

3. Georg Blattenburger Jr. (Georg, Christophorus) was born on 14 Aug 1673 in Hof Plattenberg, Bavaria, Germany.

George Blattenburger was married twice. Elizabeth Wagenlechner was his second wife. The name of his first wife is unknown.

Georg married Elizabeth Wagenlechner, daughter of Jacob Wagenlechner and Maria, on 17 Feb 1716 in Bavaria, Germany. Elizabeth was born about 1690 in Dotzkirchen, Ranoldsberg, Germany.

Elizabeth Wagenlechner was Georg Blattenburger's second wife.

Georg and Elizabeth had the following children:

- + 4 M i. Johannes Ludwig Blattenberger was born on 12 Oct 1721 and died in Mar 1794.
- 5 M ii. Anton Blattenberger was born on 4 Jan 1730 in Hof Plattenberg, Bavaria, Germany and was christened in Catholic Church, Buchbach, Bavaria, Germany.
- 6 F iii. Catharina Blattenberger was christened in Catholic Church, Buchbach, Bavaria, Germany. She died in 1778 in Lancaster Co., PA and was buried in 1778 in Trinity Lutheran Church cemetery, Lancaster, Lancaster Co., PA.

Catharina Blattenberger is believed to have emigrated to America with her married brother, Johannes Ludwig Blattenberger, and his wife and their two children. In 1743, when they emigrated, both of Catharine's parents may have been deceased, which may have prompted both Catharine and Johannes to emigrate. It is believed that Catharine found employment as a housekeeper in Lancaster, PA, and remained there the rest of her life. She was a regular member of Trinity Lutheran Church in Lancaster and apparently never married. At her death she was buried in the old cemetery adjacent to the church.

Fourth Generation

4. Johannes Ludwig Blattenberger (Georg, Georg, Christophorus) was born on 12 Oct 1721 in Hof Plattenberg, Bavaria, Germany and was christened in Catholic Church, Buchbach, Bavaria, Germany. He died in Mar 1794 in Manheim, Lancaster Co., PA and was buried in Mar 1794 in Reformed Church cemetery, Manheim, Lancaster Co., PA.

Johannes Ludwig Blattenberger was born at Hof Plattenberg in Bavaria and was baptized at the Catholic Parish Church in Buchbach. The records of this church begin in 1611.

The first entry of a Plattenberger appears in the Catholic Parish Church register. On 2 June 1611, a George Plattenberger, son of Johannes Plattenberger was born (or baptized). In 1770 a Maria Plattenberger married a Weixelgartner; Maria's brother, Johannes Plattenberger, died; and her brother Michael Plattenberger, left the farm. Michael Plattenberger is believed to be the ancestor of the Detroit, Michigan, Plattenbergers. After 1770 the surname Plattenberger no longer appears in the Buchbach records.

The known ancestors of Johannes Ludwig Blattenberger were:

PARENTS: George Blattenberger, Jr. (born 14 Aug 1673 in Hof Plattenberg, Bavaria) and his second wife, Elizabeth Wagenlechner (born abt. 1690 in Dotzkirchen, Ranoldsberg, Germany), daughter of Jacob Wagenlechner and Maria. George Blattenberger, Jr. and Elizabeth Wagenlechner were married on 17 Feb 1716 in Bavaria.

GRANDPARENTS: George Blattenberger, Sr. (born 16 Apr 1639 in Hof Plattenberg, Bavaria) and wife, Anna Mayrhofer (born in parish of Velden Vils, Germany), daughter of Georg Mayrhofer. George Blattenberger, Sr. and Anna Mayrhofer were married on 17 Jan 1668 in Bavaria.

GREAT-GRANDPARENTS: Christophorus Blattenberger (born Hof Plattenberg, Bavaria) and wife, Barbara Eder (born Reynoldsberg, Germany), daughter of Simon Eder. Christophorus Blattenberger and Barbara Eder were married on 7 Jun 1633 in Buchbach, Germany. The marriage of Christoph Blattenberger to Barbara Eder appears in the marriage register of the Catholic Church of Buchbach, Germany. The register entry shows that Christoph was a farmer's son from Platenberg (aka. Hof Plattenberg) and that Barbara Eder was a farmer's daughter from the parsonage of Ranoldsberg.

This marriage record also gave the names of Christoph's parents, Johannes and Elisabeth Plattenberger, and of Barbara's father, Simon Eder. The name of Barbara's mother was not given and she may have been deceased by the date of the marriage in June of 1633. Christoph may have had a second wife named "Ursula".

GREAT-GREAT-GRANDPARENTS: Johannes Blattenberger and Elisabeth

While still in Bavaria, Johannes Blattenberger (b. 12 Oct 1721) married Barbara Palmer, daughter of Johan and Christine (Majer) Palmer. The exact date of their marriage is unknown. According to a memorium prepared at the time of Barbara's death in 1758, the couple was married in 1734. However, at that time Johannes would have been only 13 years of age. Their first child was born in 1737. Therefore it is more likely that they married around that time. In 1737, at the time of their marriage, Johannes was only 16 years of age while Barbara was 25, nine years older.

Johannes and Barbara had two children born in Germany; Anna Maria, born in 1737, and Philip, born in 1741. Two years later they left Bavaria for the new world with their two children.

Johannes and his family arrived at Philadelphia on the ship "Lydia" on 19 September 1743 (qualified 20 September). The ship, commanded by Captain James Ambercrombie, sailed from Rotterdam, Holland with a stop at Cowes, England. The list of the names and ages of the adult male passengers on board the "Lydia", which was prepared by Captain Ambercrombie, includes "Johannes Platenberger, age 22".

On 20 September 1743 Johannes, along with the other male adult arrivals, went to the courthouse in Philadelphia, to swear their allegiance to King George of England and to the English Colonial government. These oaths, known as the oath of allegiance and the oath of abjuration, were required by laws enacted in 1727 and 1729. Johannes' name was entered on the signature lists by the court clerks, who were English, as "Johannes Plattenberger" on the oath of allegiance and as "Johannes Blattenberger" on the oath of abjuration list. Johannes witnessed his name on both oaths with a double cross mark, indicating he could not write his name at that time. (Source: Strassburger and Hinke, " Pennsylvania German Pioneers", Vol. 1, pp. 340 to 343)

Shortly after their arrival in 1743, Johannes and his family settled in Warwick Township in Lancaster Co., PA where they became members of the Moravian Church. Johannes was listed as paying taxes in Warwick Twp. in 1751 (John Blateberger) and again in 1754 (John Plataberger). In 1756 he served as Tax Collector in Warwick Twp. In 1759 he was assessed for 200 acres in Warwick Twp. Land records also show that he bought and sold various parcels of land in Warwick Twp. between the years 1762 and 1779. Some of this land was purchased by indenture. The significant number of purchases and sales suggests that Johannes may have been a land speculator, buying tracts of land and then subdividing them for resale. He also started a weaving business which was taken over by his son, Peter, after Johannes retired.

During the period between 1743 and 1756, Johannes and Barbara had eight more children, all born in Lancaster Co., PA. Four of their children died in childhood and were buried in the Moravian cemetery at Lititz, PA: Philip and Elizabeth in 1749, Nathaniel in 1751, and Anna Rosina in 1758.

In January of 1758 Johannes' wife, Barbara, fell ill and passed away at the age of 46. She was buried in the Moravian Cemetery at Lititz, PA on 30 January 1758. According to a memorium (Curriculum Vitae) prepared at the time of her death in 1758, Barbara's parents were Mennonites and she was brought up according to their faith. Growing older she turned more and more to the Reformed Church. After hearing the preachings of several Moravian ministers, Barbara was officially admitted to the Moravian congregation in Warwick, Lancaster Co., PA in November of 1749.

Even though his wife became a member of the Moravian congregation, it appears that Johannes Plattenberger continued to be associated with the Reformed Church. Although there is no record of Johannes ever actually joining the Reformed Congregation or taking communion there. This suggests that Johannes may have remained loyal to the Catholic religion since he was baptized a Catholic.

Sometime after January of 1758, Johannes remarried a woman named Margaretha. (Note: In prior research of the Blattenberger family in the Lancaster Co. area, a marriage record was found which showed that John Blattenberger married Otilia Margarethe (Zimmerman) Boetzell of Atolhoe on 19 August 1760 at St. Paul's Reformed Church in Manheim, PA. Subsequent research has proven that the John Blattenberger mentioned in this marriage record was actually John "Poffenberger", not "Blattenberger". However, Lancaster Co. deed #370 of Manheim Twp., deed book H-370, showed that on 9 January 1767, Margaret Zimmerman, widow, of Manheim Twp. transferred property to John "Plottebarger", of the same place. Therefore, it is still possible that Margaretha's married or maiden name may have been "Zimmerman".)

Johannes and Margaretha Blattenberger had two children, daughters Anna Rosina born in 1761, and Margaretha, born about two years later. Around 1767 Johannes and Margaretha moved to Manheim Twp. in Lancaster Co., PA where Johannes set up a weaving business. In the 1790 census Johannes was listed in Manheim Twp. with one male over the age of 16 and one female in his household. By the following year, 1791, Johannes had moved again, to Rapho Twp. in Lancaster Co., PA.

Late in life Johannes retired and his son, Peter, took over the weaving business that he had founded. Johannes also gave each of his two youngest daughters, Anna Rosina and Margaretha, a property in Manheim Twp. "in return for their affections".

On 29 October 1791 Johannes wrote his last will and testament. He directed that his "just debts and funeral expenses be paid off and discharged" and bequeathed "unto his beloved wife Margaret all of his goods, chattels, effects, and personal estate whatsoever to and for her proper use and benefit and to be at her disposal". He further gave and bequeathed unto his wife Margaret all of his "messuages, tenements, lands and lots of ground and real estate whatsoever and wheresoever" which he was in possession of at the time of his death.

He further directed that, after the decease of his wife Margaret, all of his "messuages, tenements, lands, lots of ground and real estate whatsoever with their appurtenances" were given and devised to his eight children "to wit John Blattenberger, Christian Blattenberger, Daniel Blattenberger, Frederick Blattenberger, Peter Blattenberger,

Anna Maria Berstler (widow and relict of John Berstler deceased), Rosina the wife of George Hauenstein, and Margaret the wife of John Eby". Lastly he appointed his wife, Margaret, son-in-law George Hauenstein, and trusty friend, John Baker, of Rapho Twp. the executors of his estate. The witnesses to Johannes' will were Lewis Frederick Machold and Philip Glonninger. (Lancaster Co. will book I, vol. 1, p. 34)

Johannes died around March of 1794 in Rapho Twp., Lancaster Co., PA. On 28 March 1794 his will was proved and letters of administration were granted to Margaret Blattenberger, George Hauenstein and John Baker, who were ordered to exhibit an inventory and render an accounting of his estate. An inventory of Johannes' "goods and chattels" was made on 12 April 1794 by appraisers Frederick Nauman and John Flam and was registered in Lancaster, PA on 26 April 1794.

According to descendant, Barbara Palmer, when Johannes died in 1794, his second wife, Margaret, arranged for his burial in the cemetery behind the Reformed Church in Manheim. She was laid to rest there also several years later. Supposedly, around 1840, their tombstones, along with many others in the Reformed cemetery, were taken up and placed in the sub-basement of the church to create space for horse and buggy parking of congregation members. Today the old cemetery is paved over for automobile parking. In 2005 Barbara Palmer reported that she personally saw the old tombstones of Johannes and Margaret in the church sub-basement and the inscriptions were no longer legible.

Johannes married (1) Barbara Palmer (aka. Balmer), daughter of Johan Palmer and Christine Majer, about 1737 in Germany. Barbara was born about 1712 in Sinsheim, Near Heidelberg, Germany. She died on 26 Jan 1758 in Warwick Twp., Lancaster Co., PA and was buried on 30 Jan 1758 in St James Graveyard (aka. Moravian Church Cemetery), Lititz, Lancaster Co., PA.

The family name "Palmer" also appears in some early records as "Balmer".

According to a memorium (Curriculum Vitae) prepared at the time of her death in 1758, Barbara's parents were Mennonites and she was brought up according to their faith. Growing older she turned more and more to the Reformed Church. After hearing the preachings of several Moravian ministers, Barbara was officially admitted to the Moravian congregation in Warwick, Lancaster Co., PA in November of 1749.

Barbara fell ill on the 16th of January 1758 and passed away on 26 January 1758. She was buried in the Moravian Cemetery at Lititz.

Several of Barbara's brothers also emigrated to America and lived nearby in Lancaster Co., PA. Carl Diedrich and Christian Palmer arrived at Philadelphia on 11 August 1732 on the ship "Samuel". On the ship's list of passengers, Carl was shown as 20 years of age and Christian as 24. Their name was shown as "Balmer". (Strassburger and Hinke, "Pennsylvania German Pioneers", Vol. I, pp. 60, 64, 65). A third brother, Michael Palmer, arrived five years later on 5 October 1737 on the ship "Townsend", (Strassburger and Hinke, "Pennsylvania German Pioneers", Vol. I, pp. 185, 186, 187).

Christian Palmer was born in August 1703 and died at Warwick Twp. in Lancaster Co., PA on 8 March 1778. He was married twice; first to Susanna Brunck and then to Barbara Pichler and had thirteen children. Michael Palmer died in Warwick Twp. on 20 September 1749 at the age of 40 years. Nothing further is known of her brother, Carl Diedrich Palmer.

Johannes also married (2) Margaretha. Margaretha was buried in Reformed Church cemetery, Manheim, Lancaster Co., PA.

There is some uncertainty as to Margaret's maiden name.

In 1767 a Margaret Zimmerman, widow, sold a piece of property in Manheim Twp. to John "Plottebarger". This could be John's wife using her name before they were married. She might need to do that if the previous deed referred to her as Margaret Zimmerman. (Lancaster Co. deeds, H-370, 9 January 1767)

If this is the same Margaret that John married, then her maiden name would not be Zimmerman since the deed says she is a widow.

Johannes and Margaretha had the following children:

- + 17 F xi. Anna Rosina Blattenberger was born on 17 May 1761 and died on 4 Feb 1845.
- + 18 F xii. Margaretha Blattenberger was born after 1761.

Fifth Generation

7. Anna Maria Blattenberger (Johannes Ludwig Blattenberger, Georg, Georg, Christophorus) was born on 2 May 1737 in Alpisheim, Lower Pfaltz, Germany. She died on 26 Aug 1808 in Schoeneck, Plainfield (now Bushkill) Twp., Northampton Co., PA and was buried on 28 Aug 1808 in Moravian Church Cemetery (aka. God's Acre), Schoeneck, Bushkill Twp., Northampton Co., PA.

The records of Schoeneck Moravian Church show that Anna Maria Blattenberger was born in Alpisheim (or Olpisheim) in the Lower Pfaltz in Germany.

Anna Maria emigrated to America with her parents in 1743 at the age of six. In 1758, when her mother died, she was living in the Moravian "House of Sisterhood" in Bethlehem, PA. While in Bethlehem she met John George Boerstler (Bürstler). They were married at the Bethlehem Moravian Church by Brother Petri.

After her husband died in 1790, Anna Maria may have lived with her son, Jacob Bürstler, near Schoeneck in Northampton Co., PA. The record of her death and burial in the "Sterbe Register" of Schoeneck Moravian Church shows that she had three children; one son and two daughters. (Register book #2, pg. 107, Item #57, Moravian Archives, Bethlehem, PA)

Anna married John George Boerstler on 4 Jan 1761 in Moravian Church, Bethlehem, Northampton Co., PA. John was born on 5 Jan 1732 in Oley, Berks Co., PA. He died on 17 Mar 1790 in Bethlehem, Northampton Co., PA and was buried in Mar 1790 in Old Moravian Cemetery (aka. God's Acre), Bethlehem, Northampton Co., PA.

John George Bürstler/Boerstler was married to his first wife, Eva Roth, from Alsace, at the Bethlehem Moravian Congregation by Brother Martin Mack. He went to the Moravian Community in North Carolina in 1759 but returned to Bethlehem and married Anna Maria Plattenberger. He was a farmer on the Moravian Church farm near Bethlehem, PA.

(Note: The surname of Boerstler was originally "Bürstler", with an unlaut over the letter "u" in the name.)

John and Anna had the following children:

- 21 F iii. Daughter Boerstler.

10. Johannes Blattenberger (II) (Johannes Ludwig Blattenberger, Georg, Georg, Christophorus) was born on 14 Oct 1744 in Warwick Twp., Lancaster Co., PA. He died on 14 Jun 1813 in Middletown, Dauphin Co., PA and was buried on 17 Jun 1813 in St. Peter's Church Cemetery, Middletown, Dauphin Co., PA.

Johannes Blattenberger operated a blacksmith shop in Lancaster Boro. By 1810 he had moved to Middletown in Dauphin Co., PA where he was a tavern keeper.

Johannes was a Sergeant in the Revolutionary War. During the period from 30 December 1775 to March 1776 he served as Sergeant of the Guard on 12 January 1776 and again on 10 February 1776. During that time he guarded Hessian prisoners of war. He is listed in the DAR Patriot Index.

Johannes was listed in the 1790 census in Lancaster Boro with one male over the age of 16, three males under the age of 16, and four females. Later he moved to Middletown, PA.

According to family records in the possession of Johannes' grand-daughter, Rachel Snavelly, daughter of Magdalena (Blattenberger) Snavelly, Johannes had five children by his first wife and thirteen children by his second wife. Baptismal records have been found at Trinity Lutheran Church in Lancaster for three of the five children by his first wife and seven of the thirteen children by his second wife. The last of these baptisms at Trinity Lutheran Church took place in 1789. The remaining children, who were all born after that date, may have been baptized after Johannes moved his family to Middletown, PA. (Pennsylvania Historical Society Library, Philadelphia, PA, file Gen Ro 10)

Johannes is buried in St. Peter's Church cemetery, Middletown. He wrote a will on 2 August 1810 which was probated 28 June 1813 (Will book D, p. 21, Dauphin Co., PA) To his beloved wife, Mary, he bequeathed beds and furniture. He directed that the residual of his property was to be sold and "put at interest" after the debts are paid, with the interest paid to his wife. Mary was also to have the use of the real estate while she remained a widow. He directed Mary to "raise my son Isaac and my daughter Nancy and give them schooling". He also specified that "If my wife marries, then the real estate is to be sold and divided between wife Mary and sons John, George, Philip, Isaac, Jacob and daughters Rachel, Catharine, Molly, Peggy, and Nancy equally except certain items of furniture devised to daughter Molly in addition to her equal share". He further directed that his "interest in the shop and ground now occupied by John Bomberger" was "to be divided equally and the accounts charged against my children are to be part of their shares in my estate". Lastly he appointed his wife, Mary, son-in-law John Bomberger, and son Philip, executors of his estate. His will was witnessed by Philip Youngblood and Elisha Green.

Children Nancy and Isaac were still minors and were appointed guardians. On 16 March 1816 the executors reported a balance in the estate of $18.07 1/2. On 20 December 1820, Isaac Blattenberger, son of John (II), filed for court approval of Elisha Green as his guardian (his previous guardian may have died).

11. Christian Ludwig Plattenberger (Johannes Ludwig Blattenberger, Georg, Georg, Christophorus) was born on 6 Jul 1747 in Warwick Twp., Lancaster Co., PA. He died on 18 Jan 1833 and was buried on 20 Jan 1833.

Christian Plattenberger moved from Lancaster County to Northampton County, PA around 1769 and settled in Nazareth Twp. near the village of Schoeneck. He was associated with the Moravian Church in Schoeneck, near Nazareth. However, it is not certain that he was a confirmed member. According to the Moravian Church records, Christian was a farmer.

Around 1770 or 1771, Christian married Salome Mueller of Bethlehem, PA. This was his second wife. The name of his first wife is unknown and no evidence has been found to indicate that he had any children by his first marriage.

Christian served as a Private in the 3rd Company, 2nd Battalion in the Northampton County Militia during the period of the Revolutionary War.

In the 1790 census, Christian (listed as Christian Platabergher) was living in Nazareth Twp. in Northampton Co., PA. Living in his household were one male over the age of 16, three males under 16, and one female.

Sometime between 1800 and 1820 (perhaps after the death of his wife in 1806), Christian moved to Baltimore Co., Maryland, with his son, Joseph. In 1820 he was living in the 3rd Ward, Baltimore, and son Joseph in N. Twp., Baltimore Co. Christian is believed to have died there. His burial site has not been found.

Christian's death and burial appears in the records of Schoeneck Moravian Church, Bushkill Twp., Northampton Co., PA (Record book #3, pg. 121, Item #156, Moravian Archives, Bethlehem, PA). The record reads as follows: "Christian Plattenberger a widowed brother. He was born the 6th July 1747 in Lancaster County. In the year 1806 the 13th of April, his wife Salome nee Müller, died. This marriage was blessed with 5 children - 4 sons and 1 daughter, of which 3 sons survive. He also was blessed with 18 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren. He reached the age of 85 years, 6 months, and 12 days."

The above record does not contain the name of the Pastor who performed the funeral services nor does it give Christian's burial location. The Pastor's name usually appears in similar records if the person was buried in the graveyard adjacent to Schoeneck Moravian Church. Therefore, the lack of a Pastor's name suggests that Christian was buried elsewhere.

Christian married Salome Mueller in 1769 in Northampton Co., PA. Salome was born on 9 Aug 1744 in Great Swamp, Bucks Co., PA and was christened in Jan 1749 in Moravian Church, Bethlehem, Northampton Co., PA. She died on 13 Apr 1806 in Nazareth Twp., Northampton Co., PA and was buried on 15 Apr 1806.

In 1750, at about age 6, Salome Mueller moved with her parents from Bucks County to Bethlehem, PA where she was baptized in the Moravian Church. The record of her death in the "Sterbe Register" of the Moravian Church at Schoeneck shows that she died at the age of 61 years, 8 months, and 4 days. (Register Book #2, pg. 107, Item #53, Moravian Archives, Bethlehem, PA)

The church record reads as follows:

Died 13 April, Buried 15 April 1806 - Salome Plattenberger, born Müller, a married sister of 61 years, 8 months, and 4 days. She was born the 9th Aug 1744 in Big Swamp, Bucks County in Pennsylvania. At the age of 6 years she came to Bethlehem with her parents, where she was baptized. In 1769 she married the current widow Christian Plattenberger. This marriage was blessed with 5 children, namely 4 sons and a daughter, who however did not view the light of this world. Of the sons Johannes preceded her into eternity. She had 4 grandchildren from her oldest son Jacob. The other sons are Joseph and Philip. The cause of her death was gall-fever.

Salome's parents have not been identified with any degree of certainty. She may have been a daughter of Abraham and Magdalena (Fuhrman) Mueller, who arrived in America on the ship "Hope" on 28 August 1733 (See Burgert, "Eighteenth Century Emigrants from the Western Palatinate", Vol. II, pg. 239). However, this has yet to be proven.

The daily diary of the Moravian Congregation at Bethlehem, PA, contains numerous references to an Abraham Mueller, coming and going between Bethlehem and Great Swamp. This was most likely Salome's father.

Christian and Salome had the following children:

- 47 M i. Johannes Plattenberger was born on 21 May 1772 in Plainfield (now Bushkill) Twp., Northampton Co., PA. He died on 10 Feb 1792 in Schoeneck, Plainfield (now Bushkill) Twp., Northampton Co., PA and was buried on 12 Feb 1792 in Moravian Church cemetery, Schoeneck, Plainfield (now Bushkill) Twp., Northampton Co., PA.

Johannes Plattenberger died un-married at the age of 19 years, 8 months and 20 days. His death and burial appear in the "Sterbe Register" of the Moravian Church at Schoeneck in Register Book #2, pg. 91, Item #2 (Original records at Moravian Archives, Bethlehem, PA).

In the 1790 census, Frederick Blattenberger was listed in Rapho Twp., Lancaster County, PA with one male over the age of 16, three males under 16, and one female.

He was a blacksmith and also worked in the glass factory of Baron Von Stiegel.

Frederick was a Private in the 10th regiment of foot soldiers under Jacob Weaver. This company was raised in the fall of 1776 and fought in various actions and skirmishes in New Jersey. Then they fought in the battles of Brandywine and Germantown and, in June 1778, at Monmouth, NJ.

Frederick married UNKNOWN.

They had the following children:

- + 52 M i. Christian Blattenberger was born about 1788 and died about 1850/1860.
- 53 M ii. Daniel Blattenberger was born about 1789. He died in Lebanon Co., PA.
- 54 M iii. Son Blattenberger.

15. Peter Blattenberger (Johannes Ludwig Blattenberger, Georg, Georg, Christophorus) was born about 1755 in Warwick Twp., Lancaster Co., PA. He died on 15 Sep 1823 in Manheim, Lancaster Co., PA.

Peter Blattenberger served with the 77th Battalion of Lancaster Co. Militia.

Peter learned the weaving trade from his father. He operated a weaving business at Manheim which was continued by his sons and grandsons in the late 1800s. While living at Manheim, Peter and his wife were members of st. Paul's Reformed Church.

In 1790 Peter was living in Manheim Twp., Lancaster Co., PA with one male over the age of 16 and two females in his household.

On 14 September 1823, while ill in bed in his home in Manheim, PA., Peter declared his last will and testament. He bequeathed all of his estate to his wife, Susanna, during her natural life and directed that his children were to "aid her in support of the family by carrying on the weaving trade", except for children, Jacob and Susanna, who were handicapped. After the death or intermarriage of his widow, his house and lot of ground and other buildings were to go given to sons, Jacob and Peter Jr., who were directed to pay $500 to the estate within one year of taking possession. Peter also gave his widow permission to dispose of any of the out lots of ground which he owned near the town of Manheim. After his widow's intermarriage or death, the remaining estate was bequeathed equally to his six children. He appointed sons, Jacob and Peter Jr., the executors. Peter's declaration was witnessed by John Thome and Michael Kauffman.

Before the writing of the will was completed Peter "was taken with violent fever and became incompetent to sign the same". He died the following morning. (Lancaster will book O, vol. 1, pg. 95)

Peter married Susanna Eby, daughter of George Eby and Rosina Shauer, on 27 Sep 1786 in First Reformed (now UCC) Church, Lancaster, Lancaster Co., PA. Susanna was born about 1766 in Warwick Twp., Lancaster Co., PA. She died after 1823.

They had the following children:

- 55 F i. Daughter Blattenberger was born about 1789 in Manheim, Lancaster Co., PA.

Her first name is not known. This female child was living in Peter's household in the 1790 census but was deceased by 1823 when Peter declared his will.

- 56 F ii. Catharina Blattenberger was born on 17 Jan 1791 in Manheim, Lancaster Co., PA. She died before 1871.

Catharina (Blattenberger) Kauffman is believed to have died sometime prior to 1871 since she was not named as one of the heirs of her sister, Susanna's, estate in April of 1871.

Catharina married David Kauffman.

- 57 M iii. Jacob Blattenberger was born on 6 Jan 1797 in Manheim, Lancaster Co., PA and was christened on 26 Feb 1797 in St. Paul's Reformed Church, Manheim, Lancaster Co., PA. He died on 7 Oct 1879 in Montgomery Co., OH and was buried in Oct 1879 in Fairview Cemetery, Englewood, Montgomery Co., OH.

In his father's will of 1823, Jacob Blattenberger was said to have "bodily infirmities" which prevented him from laboring in the weaving business.

On 2 July 1849 a marriage license was issued in Montgomery Co., OH, to Jacob Blattenberger and Margaret Stender. The actual date of their marriage is not noted on the marriage license application but they were most likely married in July. In 1849 Jacob would have been 52 years old so this may have been his second marriage. (Montgomery Co., OH, marriage license on Familysearch.org)

In 1850 Jacob Blattenberger (listed as Blattenburgh), b. in PA, age 53, a farmer, was living in Randolph, Montgomery Co., OH, with his wife, Margaret Blattenberger, b. in Germany, age 50. Also listed in their household was David Sluterback, b. in OH, age 13. (1850 census, house #1064, family #1064)

Also listed in their household was William Sherm, b. in OH, age 12. (1860 census, microfilm roll M653_1014, Page 319, house #825, family #806)

In 1870 Jacob Blattenberger (listed as Blattenburg, b. in PA, age 73, a laborer, was living in Randolph, Montgomery Co., OH, with his wife, Margret Blattenberger, b. in Wurttemberg, age 70. Also listed in their household was Susan Lent, b. in OH, age 22, a domestic servant. (1870 census, microfilm roll, M593_1248, Page 727A, family #52)

Jacob Blattenberger left a will, written 1 January 1869, in which he bequeathed all of his estate, both real and personal, to his wife, Margaret. After her death, one half of any remaining estate was bequeathed to his brothers and sisters, or their kin (not named). The other half was "given to his wife's disposal". He appointed Ephraim Eby and Peter Blottenbarg to be the executors. (Ohio, Wills and Probate Records, 1786-1998 for Jacob Blattenberger on Ancestry.com)

(Note: Living next door to Elizabeth and John White in the 1850 census were George White, b. in PA, age 29, a farmer, and his wife, Louisa White, b. in PA, age 28, and their children:

- Willimina White, b. in PA, age 9
- David White, b. in OH, age 7
- Mary White, b. in OH, age 3

This George White may have been a son of Elizabeth (Blattenberger) and John White.)

Elizabeth married John White about 1820. John was born about 1795 in PA.

- 59 F v. Susanna Blattenberger was born on 3 Jan 1802 in Manheim, Lancaster Co., PA and was christened on 21 Feb 1802 in St. Paul's Reformed Church, Manheim, Lancaster Co., PA. She died on 21 Sep 1870 in Montgomery Co., OH and was buried in Fairview Cemetery, Englewood, Montgomery Co., OH.

Susanna Blattenberger was handicapped. There is no evidence that she ever married or had any children.

After her death, her estate was distributed to her brothers, Peter and Jacob Blattenberger, her sister Elizabeth (Blattenberger) White, and the six children of her sister Polly (Blattenberger) Cassel. Isaac Cassel was the administrator of her estate. On 1 April 1871 the heirs all signed a document to certify that they were satisfied with the distribution and settlement of the estate.

Fort Armstrong, November the 8th 1819

Dear Wife;

By this favorable opportunity I have the pleasure to inform you of my health, hoping the same of you and family. I should have wrote on before this time but opportunity would not permit of it. We have had a very fatiguing march from Detroit until we arrived at this post. But God always favored me with health and strength and hope it may continue so until the expiration of my time. For God knows that the time seems long to me until I can have the pleasure to be with you and family. Entrust yourself to God and not illiterate people that are apt of raising disturbances in families. As for my part, if I return home onst more I shall consider them null. I am now abot 2000 miles from home, a beautiful station on the Mississippi, 300 miles this side of St. Louis, surrounded by nothing but Indians - - - from twelve to fifteen hundred indians at a moment's warning of "Sacks and Fox" (?) tribes. Those were very savage, lost more towards - - - but have become nutral and tolerable decent and supply us with different kinds of game. You will give my best regards to mother and brother and all inquiring friends. You will direct your letters to St. Louis to be forwarded to Fort Armstrong to the care of Major Marston.

Your respective husband until death,

John Blattenberger

(The above letter, written the night before John Blattenberger was killed by Indians, was sent by Randy David Pott, one of John's direct descendents. Letter deciphered by Mildred Donley.)

On 22 Oct 1821 a deposition was presented in Lancaster County Orphans Court (Misc. Book 1816-1822, p. 648) by Peter Maurer, Mary Blottenberger, and Henry Maurer stating that the legitimate heirs of John Blottenberger, deceased, were widow, Mary, and minor children, Mary Margaret, Elizabeth, and Ann. Peter Maurer was appointed guardian of the children. It is believed that this is the John Blottenberger, who was killed near Fort Amstrong in Mississippi Territory about 1819-1821.

John's estate was probated in Lancaster County in 1821 (Lancaster Co. bond book A, vol. 1, pg. 52)

John married Mary Jacquet.

Her name is given here as "Jacquet". However, it may have been "Maurer" since Peter Maurer and Henry Maurer signed the orphans court deposition to name John Blottenberger's heirs. Also, Peter Maurer was one of the executors of the estate.

John and Mary had the following children:

- 88 F i. Mary Margareth Blattenberger.
- 89 F ii. Elizabeth Blattenberger.
- 90 F iii. Ann Blattenberger.

28. Johannes Blattenberger III (Johannes Blattenberger, Johannes Ludwig Blattenberger, Georg, Georg, Christophorus) was born on 21 Mar 1765 in Lancaster, Lancaster Co., PA and was christened on 12 May 1765 in Trinity Lutheran Church, Lancaster, Lancaster Co., PA. He died about 1813.

John Blattenberger III was a Private in a company of the 4th, 5th, and 6th class of the 8th Battalion under Lt. Col. James Ross, Lancaster County Militia in 1781 in the Revolutionary War. During the War of 1812, he was listed as the Captain of Swatara Guards from Middletown.

John is believed to have died sometime between 2 August 1810, when he was listed in his father's will, and 26 October 1813. when John Bomberger, the administrator of his estate, filed a petition for court approval to sell his home. In light of the time period and his prior military service, he may have died in the War of 1812. However, this has not been proven. He died intestate.

John's house in Middletown was sold to Mary Blattenberger, who was the highest bidder. This Mary was John's widow. On 4 March 1816 John Bomberger produced an account showing that there was $265.74 ³/₄ in John's estate. On 5 September 1816, John Bomberger petitioned the court to appoint auditors to "settle and adjust the rates and proportions of the remaining assets to and amongst the creditors of the intestate".

Johannes married Anna Maria Etley, daughter of Gottlieb David Etley (or Etle) and Margaretha, about 1797 in St. Peter's Church, Middletown, Dauphin Co., PA. Anna was born on 10 Oct 1780 in Middletown, Dauphin Co., PA. She died on 18 Nov 1815 in Middletown, Dauphin Co., PA.

The distribution of her father's estate shows that his youngest daughter, Anna Maria Etley, who was still a minor at the time of her father's death, was awarded lot #3 in Middletown, PA.

The record of Anna Maria's death at St. Peter's Church in Middletown says she had seven children. Only the four children mentioned above have been identified. The names of the remaining three of these Blattenberger children are unknown at this time. The church record of her death also gave her age as 35 years, 1 month, and 8 days, which when subtracted from her date of death, gives her date of birth of 10 October 1780. She died intestate.

On 30 January 1816, George Lowman, the executor of Anna Maria (aka. Mary) (Etley) Blattenberger Bolton's estate, petitioned for court approval to sell her land to pay her debts and maintain and educate her children. The petition stated that Mary "died intestate leaving issue three children John, George and Thomas all minors and a husband Joseph Bolton who claims under the intestate laws her personal estate which she possessed at the time of their intermarriage; the above named children were by her first husband John Blattenberger and she had no issue by her second husband Joseph Bolton".

At the time of her death, Mary owned two properties, the house and lot #10 in Middletown which she had purchased from her husband's estate and lot #3 on Spring Street which she had inherited from her father, David Etley.

Also, on 30 January 1816, George Lowman, administrator of Mary Bolton's estate filed a petition in Lancaster County orphan's court for guardians for Anna Maria's three minor children; John, George, and Thomas. Daughter Catharine, who was about 18 years of age in 1816, could have been already married at that time. John Bomberger was appointed guardian for Thomas Blattenberger. On 29 June 1819, John Blattenberger, son of John and Mary, requested that the court approve John Bomberger as his guardian.

On 5 March 1816 George Lowman reported to the court that, at a public sale on Saturday, 24 February 1816, he sold lot #10 and the house thereon to Doctor A. C. Price of Middletown and lot #3 on Spring Street to James Hamilton. On 20 October 1820, George Lowman filed an accounting of Mary's estate showing a balance of $438.30.

Johannes and Anna had the following children:

- + 91 M i. John Blattenberg was born on 20 Aug 1800 and died on 9 Oct 1868.
- + 92 M ii. George Blattenberger was born on 30 May 1803 and died on 21 Jan 1895.

Catharine married Wolf.

30. George Plattenburg (Johannes Blattenberger, Johannes Ludwig Blattenberger, Georg, Georg, Christophorus) was born on 14 Mar 1769 in Lancaster, Lancaster Co., PA. He died on 10 Nov 1841 in Wellsburg, Brooke Co., WV and was buried in Brooke Cemetery, Wellsburg, Brooke Co., WV.

George Blattenberger served in the Revolutionary War as a Private in Captain Jacob Bunner's Company in a German Regiment commanded by Lt. Col. Weltner. After the war he may have received some bounty land for his service.

George first moved to Ann Arundel County, Maryland where a number of Germans settled after the war. According to the LDS IGI he married Mary Young in Baltimore, source 13693. They were married by Parson Weems (who is credited for the story about George Washington chopping down the cherry tree). In 1805 George moved his family to Brooke County, West Virginia where he lived near Wellsburg.

George owned and operated a tailor shop near Wellsburg which was continued by his descendants until 1955.

Before his death, George willed his tailor shop to his son John and other property to his son Jacob on condition that they take good care of his wife and daughter, Mary, who apparently was living at home. George wrote his will on 27 July 1838 in Brooke County. The will was probated in June 1841.

Sometime prior to his death, George apparently dropped the "er" at the end of his surname and became Plattenburg. The surname on the tombstone of George and his wife, Mary, is Plattenburg.

In 1860 George's widow, Mary Plattenburg, b. in MD, age 91, was living in the Wellsburg Post Office District in Brooke Co., VA, in the household of their married daughter, Mary (Plattenburg) Stephens, b. in VA, age 43, and her husband, Lewis U. Stephens, b. in VA, age 40, a house painter, and two children, both born in VA:

- Mary A. Stephens, age 11

Also listed in their household was George and Mary's son, Jacob Plattenburg, b. in VA, age 62, a laborer. (1860 census, microfilm roll M653_1337, Page 525, house #784, family #750)

(Note: George's memorial on Findagrave shows that he died on 10 November 1841. However, his will was probated in the Brooke County Circuit Court in the June term of 1841. He probably died in November 1840, not 1841.)

George married Mary Young on 1 Mar 1791 in Baltimore, MD. Mary was born about 1770 in MD. She died on 29 Jul 1860 in Wellsburg, Brooke Co., WV and was buried in Brooke Cemetery, Wellsburg, Brooke Co., WV.

Isaac and Cora had the following children:

- + 130 M i. John Blattenberger was born on 27 Nov 1825 and died on 17 May 1897.
- + 131 M ii. Philip Plattenburg was born on 21 Nov 1828 and died on 1 Feb 1892.
- 132 F iii. Rachel Blattenberger was born on 1 Nov 1830.
- + 133 M iv. Jacob Blattenberger was born on 22 Jan 1831 and died on 28 Mar 1905.
- 134 M v. George Washington Blattenberger was born on 21 Dec 1833.
- 135 M vi. Isaac James Blattenberger was born on 17 Mar 1836 in PA.

Isaac James Blattenberger could be the same person as the following James I. Blatenburg, who was living in California in 1880 and 1900.

In 1880 James Blatenburg, b. in PA, age 44, a carpenter, was living in Pasadena, Los Angeles Co., PA, with his wife, Sarah Blatenburg, b. in PA, age 42, and five of their children:

- daughter Lizzie Blatenburg, b. in IA, age 14, at school
- daughter Cora Blatenburg, b. in IA, age 12, at school
- daughter Fannie Blatenburg, b. in IA, age 10, at school
- son Harry Blatenburg, b. in IA, age 5, at school
- daughter Mertie Blatenburg, b. in CA, age 3

(1880 census, microfilm roll 67, Family History Film 1254067, Page 398B, house #21, family #21)

In 1900 James I. Blatenburg, b. Mar 1836 in PA, age 64, a widower, a carpenter and joiner, was living at 447 North Marengo Ave. in Pasadena, Los Angeles Co., CA, with his daughter:

- Fannie S. Blatenburg, b. Nov 1869 in IA, age 30

(1900 census, microfilm roll 91, Page 5B, house #128, family #132)

- 136 F vii. Mary Magdalen Blattenberger was born on 9 Mar 1839.
- 137 F viii. Eliza Jane Blattenberger was born in Sep 1841.
- + 138 M ix. Rev. John Price W. Blattenberger was born on 8 Aug 1848 and died on 16 Jun 1906.
- + 139 F x. Cora E. Blattenberger was born in Sep 1851 and died on 7 Jul 1921.

48. Jacob Plattenberger (Christian Ludwig Plattenberger, Johannes Ludwig Blattenberger, Georg, Georg, Christophorus) was born on 3 Jul 1776 in Nazareth Twp., Northampton Co., PA. He died on 2 Mar 1854 in Stroud Twp., Monroe Co., PA.

Jacob Plattenberger's first two children were born and baptized in Nazareth Twp. but his third child was born in Smithfield Twp. That places Jacob's move north around 1800-1803. Deeds of his son John show that Jacob received a deed from Daniel Brodhead, an early Monroe Co. settler. John's deed further says Jacob's deed was on file in the Northampton Co. Courthouse at Easton PA, but no record has ever been found.

The 1810 census lists Jacob's family in Smithfield Twp. although the 1820 and later census says he lived in Stroud Twp. Monroe Co. Fire maps show the location of Jacob's farm to be right on the border of Stroud and Smithfield Twps. It is believed the switch in designations is a change in boundaries rather than Jacob's family moving.

The 1850 maps show Jacob's house just south of Analomink, and north of Brushy Mountain Road, bordered on the west by the Brodhead Creek, and the Smithfield Twp. line in the east. A second house closer to the Smithfield Twp. border is shown behind Jacob's and was built by his son John. The road to this house connects Brushy Mountain Road in the south and Wooddale Road in the north. In 1994 the land was bought and turned into the Blue Mountain Lake Development.

Ledgers of the Stodgell Stokes general store show that both Jacob and his son John had accounts there. The transactions are primarily barter; cider, woven cloth, and eggs in exchange for mostly flour and sugar.

In the 1850 Census, Jacob Plattenberger was listed as a "gentleman". (ie. retired) in Stroud Twp., Monroe Co., PA. (1850 census, microfilm roll #798, Monroe Co., PA, Stroud Twp.)

The East Stroudsburg Jeffersonian Newspaper lists his death in 1854. No burial place is given, and none has ever been found. The Analomink Methodist Church, where Jacob's son John and several of his grandchildren are buried was not built until 1859. Since no record has been found at churches in the area, it is likely he was buried on his own farm. If so, much of the farm was washed away during the flood of 1955 and his grave will probably never be found.

Jacob married Katharina Hill.

They had the following children:

Daniel married Margaret Straw, daughter of Nicholas Straw Jr. and Hannah White, on 10 Jan 1850 in Pine Grove Mills, Centre Co., PA. Margaret was born on 3 Oct 1824 in Stone Valley, Centre Co., PA. She died on 9 Jul 1895 in Fishertown, Bedford Co., PA and was buried in Fishertown Brethren (aka. Hoover) Cemetery, Fishertown, Bedford Co., PA.

People who remember Margaret (Stroh) Blattenberger say she smoked a small clay pipe and that she grew and cured her own tobacco.

Most sources show that Margaret's maiden name was "Straw". However, it may have been "Stroh". In 1994 Omara Blattenberger wrote "The actual name of this family was Stroh, a la the beer, not necessarily related. The name most likely was Anglicized from the original German ancestry due to strong anti-German semitism of Hessians during the Revolutionary War. Another possibility for the name change may stem from the high illiteracy of the native English language by these early German immigrants in America. With a strong German accent, the pronunciation of "Stroh" may have been recorded as "Straw". (Spring issue (Vol. 1, No. 1) of the "Blattenberger/Plattenberger Family Quarterly")

He died on 28 Mar 1905 in Markes, Franklin Co., PA and was buried in Apr 1905 in Spring Grove Cemetery, Lemasters, Franklin Co., PA.

Jacob served in the Civil War and fought in the battle of Gettysburg. His name is on the Pennsylvania monument on the Gettysburg battlefield.

Additional Notes on Jacob Blattenberger:

Jacob enlisted on 19 Sep. 1862 in the Civil War most likely because of the threat of Confederate invasion. Two days prior to his enlistment, the deadliest day of the war - the Battle of Antietam - was fought near by in Maryland. Jacob was a member of Company H, 16th Pennsylvania Cavalry (161st Regiment Pa. Regiment). According to his pension records, he was shot in the right index finger during the Battle of Hartwood Church, Virginia in February 1863 and was treated by a regimental surgeon. He suffered no further wounds in the war. The 16th Pa Cavalry spent most of its time in the Virginia campaigns. Jacob mustered out as a Corporal on 16 June 1865. His name on the Pennsylvania Monument at Gettysburg reads "J Bluntenberger". Jacob's brother-in-law, John Cromer, fought in the same regiment. 141. John Plattenburg (Jacob Plattenberger, Christian Ludwig Plattenberger, Johannes Ludwig Blattenberger, Georg, Georg, Christophorus) was born on 16 Sep 1800 in Nazareth Twp., Northampton Co., PA and was christened on 11 Jan 1801 in Moravian Church, Schoeneck, Plainfield (now Bushkill) Twp., Northampton Co., PA. He died on 5 Jul 1863 in Stroud Twp., Monroe Co., PA and was buried in Jul 1863 in Methodist Church Cemetery, Analomink, Monroe Co., PA.

John Plattenburg was baptized as "Johannes" Plattenberger by Brother John Ludwig Strohle. The sponsors at his baptism were John Steiner and his wife, Magdalena (nee Giering). (Moravian Church, Schoeneck, Register Book #2, pg. 75, Item #57, Moravian Archives, Bethlehem, PA)

In the 1850 census, John Plattenberger (listed as Plottenberger), age 49 a farmer, was living in Stroud Twp., Monroe Co., PA, with his wife, Catherine Plattenberger, age 39, and eight children;

- Lewis Plattenberger, age 17
- Samuel Plattenberger, age 15
- Mary Plattenberger, age 13
- Susan Plattenberger, age 11
- Reuben Plattenberger, age 9
- Charles Plattenberger, age 7
- James Plattenberger, age 3
- Etna Plattenberger, age 1

Everyone in the household was born in PA. (1850 census, microfilm roll M432_798, Page 105B, house #265, family #265)

Around 1850, most records of John's family begin to show the name spelled as Plattenburg instead of Plattenberger. The date of each family member's switching the name is different, son Samuel seems to be the first, then John himself very soon after. The other children then seem to follow with the oldest Lewis being last. A few records show the name as Plattenberg, in transition from Plattenberger to Plattenburg.

In 1860 John Plattenburg (listed as Platenburg), age 60, a farmer, was living in Stroud Twp., Monroe Co., PA, with his wife, Catharine Plattenburg, age 50, and one son:

- Reuben Plattenburg, age 19, a farm laborer

All were born in PA. (1860 census, microfilm roll M653_1142, Page 758, house #1114, family #1084)

The 1860 census shows the rest of John's family was scattered. John's younger children: Charles Plattenburg, age 17; James Plattenburg, age 14; Etna Plattenburg, age 12; and George Plattenburg, age 7, were listed in the household of Abraham Rockafeller (indexed as Rackfallan), age 29, and his wife, Susanna Rockafeller, age 28, and four of their children: Eliza Rockafeller, age 8; Gorg W. Rockafeller, age 6; Philip Rockafeller, age 3; and Marila Rockafeller, age 1. Also listed in the same household were John's married son, Lewis Plattenberg, age 26, and his wife, Catharine Plattenberger, age 26, and their daughter, Emily Plattenburg, age 6 months. (1860 census, microfilm roll M653_1142, Pages 756 and 757, house #1098, family #1069)

John's older children were married and living with their spouses, but only son Reuben was still living at home. John was reported to have been ill during this period (see notes for John's wife Catharine) which may explain why John's younger children were living with another family.

John, like his father Jacob, appears in the Stodgell Stokes general store ledgers. The ledgers are currently housed at the Monroe Co. Historical Society in Stroudsburg PA.

John died in Stroud Twp. and was buried in Analomink Methodist Church cemetery, Stroud Twp., Monroe Co. He left behind a family bible with the names and birth dates of his children. The bible is dated 1831, the year of his marriage to Catharine Brutzman, and is currently in the possession of Geoff Crawford.

On 15 June 1863 John wrote a will in which he mentioned his wife, Catharine, and his surviving five sons and three daughters. Each son received a piece of the family farm while each daughter was given $100. His son, Samuel Plattenburg, was the executor of John's estate. (Monroe Co. estate file #129, will book 2, pg. 17)

In 1880 John Plattenburg's widow, Catharine Plattenburg (listed in the census as Plattenberger), age 70, was living in Pocono Twp., Monroe Co., PA, in the household of their married daughter, Mary Ann (Plattenburg) Henry, age 43, with her husband, James M. Henry age 47 a farmer, and four of their Henry children; son Samuel age 32 a laborer, daughter Sabina (Albina) age 14, son John age 10, and daughter Nettie age 2. John married Catharine Brutzman, daughter of John Frederick Brutzman and Catharine Metzgar, on 3 Dec 1831 in Monroe Co., PA. Catharine was born on 17 Jun 1810 in Smithfield Twp., Northampton (now Monroe) Co., PA and was christened in 1810 in Middle Smithfield Presbyterian Church, Middle Smithfield Twp., Northampton (now Monroe) Co., PA. She died on 9 May 1881 in Milford, Pike Co., PA and was buried in May 1881 in Methodist Church Cemetery, Analomink, Monroe Co., PA.

After the death of her husband, John Plattenburg, Catharine (Brutzman) Plattenburg tried to collect a pension based on her son Reuben Plattenburg's Civil War service. She claimed that she was destitute and relied on Reuben for support (US Pension Claim Number 222,790). Her family doctor stated that husband John had "intemperate habits and was afflicted with an asthmatic condition several years before his death", and could not have been supporting her. Daughter Susanna Lee and son Charles Plattenburg testified that Reuben had sent her money twice, including including a letter while he was in the army. Son James, son-in-law Shrawder Lee, and neighbor Ashton Smiley all testified that she had no source of income after John's death.

Another neighbor, Abraham Rockafeller, also wrote confidentially to the pension office and stated that Catharine was infact not dependent on Reuben and that she had received a farm from her husband's estate. The pension office requested property evaluations from the county tax office, as well as the letters that Reuben sent as proof that Catharine actually received money while he was in service.

Catharine further claimed that the property was nothing but a "backwoods farm" incapable of providing her with income, and that she received not more than $75 from the settlement of her husband John's estate. The county replied to the pension office that during settlement of John Plattenburg's estate, the property was evaluated at $865. The pension office denied her claim.

Catharine is buried next to her husband in the Analomink Methodist Church cemetery, Stroud Twp. Her obituary appeared in the "Argus" newspaper in Easton, PA.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION (86th Birthday in 1907)

The annual dinner associated with the birthday of Aaron Plattenberger was celebrated this year at the pleasant country home of Chris Reiger. This gathering rotates from year to year at the different homes of the children and each one eagerly greets the advent of his or her turn and greatly enjoys the return of the day that celebrates again the birthday of the father. The occasion fell this year on last Saturday and marked the 86th mile stone of Mr. Plattenberger, at which the three families of his children were represented. Figuring back eighty-six years we find that the year, in which this aged father was born, was 1821. The mind cannot grasp what these years mean in the way of progress in the material world. In Mr. Plattenberger's boyhood the puff of the locomotive had scarcely been heard, the telegraph tick was unknown, the telephone bell unring, and thus a thousand things that to-day are present in his age were absent in his youth. The unfoldment of such a reign of progress is even more wonderful as it opened to those who were contemporaneous than to those who came and found the results here. Thus Father Plattenberger in his eighty-six years has stored away in a still retentive memory that which by experience and observation is as vast as this great western country, which developed during his years and as interesting as it population which doubled and redoubled while his youth grew into age. The celebration was especially significant this year. The rural carrier delivered to Mr. Plattenberger some fifty postal cards coming from old friends in the east, where his youth was spent and where he left many relatives and friends, as these cards attest. Thus is a happy reunion the day was spent and the wish for others were uppermost in every mind.

Aaron C. Plattenberger was born Feb. 2nd, 1821, in Northampton county, Pa., and departed this life July 15th, 1911, at the age of 90 years, 5 months and 13 days.

He came from Pennsylvania with his family in 1870, settling on a farm near Lisbon, Iowa, and has lived in and around Lisbon the remainder of his life. On Aug. 24th, 1851, he was united in marriage to Miss Sarah Susana Seyfrid, who was taken from his side on July 3rd, 1898, at the age of 68 years. Mr. and Mrs. Plattenberger had born to them five children: Lucinda, Caroline, Philip L., Robert Co., and Mary J. The former 2 have passed beyond.

In early childhood he was confirmed and united with the Moravian church in Pennsylvania. But when coming to Iowa where this church was not, he joined the United Brethren church of this place where he was always a consistent member until his death. Mr. Plattenberger was one of those everyday good men. All who knew him, well knew where to find him. In business he was honest; in the church he was faithful and loyal; in his home a kind husband and dutiful father. He was one of the oldest men and residents of Lisbon and vicinity. Being such he was well known.

The expression of esteem shown in the large attendance at the funeral was unusual, but now more than such a good man deserves. For several years he was in poor health, and on that account was not able to be around much of the time. He spent about all his time in the homes of his son Philip in town and his daughter Mrs. Mary Rieger in the country where he happened to be at his last days.

The funeral was conducted from the U. B. church by his pastor, Rev. W. N. Roush and he was laid to rest in the Lisbon cemetery July 17th. Thus another good man has gone from our midst and altho missed, will never be forgotten.

Aaron married Seraphina "Sarah" Susanna Seyfried, daughter of Johann Philip Seyfried and Anna Benigna Gambold, on 24 Aug 1851 in Northampton Co., PA. Seraphina was born on 11 Jan 1830 in Northampton Co., PA. She died on 3 Jul 1898 in Lisbon, Linn Co., IA and was buried on 5 Jul 1898 in Lisbon Cemetery, Lisbon, Franklin Twp., Linn Co., IA.

Seraphina's family name also appears in some records as "Seyfred" or "Seyfried".

Seraphina Seyfried was baptized and confirmed at the Moravian Church (either Nazareth or Schoeneck). She was a member of the United Brethren Church at Lisbon.

At Rest

Mrs. Sarah Susana Plattenberger, wife of Mr. Aaron Plattenberger was born in Northampton County, Pennsylvania, January 11th, 1830, and died at her home near Lisbon, Iowa, July 3d, 1898; aged 68 years, 5 months and 22 days. Her maiden name was Seyfrid. She was the youngest of a family of eleven children. She was baptized in her infancy, and confirmed in the Moravian church when sixteen years old.

Mrs. Plattenberger was united in marriage to her now bereaved husband, Mr. Aaron Plattenberger, August 24, 1851. This union was blessed with five children; Lou, Phillip L., Robert C., Caroline and Mary J. Two of whom have preceded her to the land beyond the river.

She came from Pennsylvania with her family to Iowa in 1870, and settled near Lisbon, where she remained till her death. She with her husband joined the United Brethren church at Lisbon, in the year 1872, and remained an honored and worthy member till called to the church triumphant. Mrs. Plattenberger was a noble Christian wife and mother who made home a paradise and united with husband in moulding the sentiment and morality of the children after the "pattern shown in the Mount." She was modest and retiring in manner, but firm in her convictions and unyielding in her sense of right. One was always made better by her companionship and her influence was constantly thrown on the right side of life. She was in delicate health for several years prior to her death but she kept a cheerful exterior and always encouraged those about her. On her death bed she bore a loving tribute to her husband and assured all, of her blessed hope of immortality and life, "Oh," she said, "My Jesus is so precious to me." In her last illness her sufferings did not seem so extremely severe, but she grew weaker and weaker till she fell asleep in Jesus and found sweet rest.

Her funeral was held in the U. B. church at Lisbon on the afternoon of July 5, was conducted by her pastor Dr. L. K. Statton when she was laid to rest in the Lisbon cemetery.

Obituary

The funeral of Jacob Levin Clewell was held from the home of Mr. C.H. Baskin Friday afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. J.K. Miller conducted the services and his talk was one full of comfort to the sorrowing friends. The Universalist choir rendered some very touching music. The flowers were beautiful in their abundance. The services were saddened to a greater measure by the weak condition of Mr. Clewell's wife. She was taken ill before her husband and seemed more ill than he, and at the last sad rites over him she was in a very weak state, which seemed pitiful.

Mr. and Mrs. Clewell have had three sons and three daughters, all of whom are living and were present with their father at the last. Mr. Clewell has not been well all winter, but it was about two weeks ago when he took to his bed from which he never rose.

Jacob Levin Clewell was born in Nazereth, Hampton County, Pennsylvania in 1824. He moved to Ohio in 1851, and in 1852 was married to Josepha G. Beitel, who was also of Nazareth. When only seventeen years of age he learned the cabinetmaker trade which he followed until he was married, at which time he went to farming in Ohio. In 1863 he moved from Ohio to Illinois living there until 1871 when he came to Kansas. In 1872, he homesteaded a piece of land in Ottawa county, and lived there until he moved to Solomon City, Kans., in 1882. In 1896 they moved to Junction City where he resided until his death, Feb. 28th, 1900.

In 1900 Jacob's widow, Josephine G. Clewell (listed as Clevell), born in PA, age 72, was living in Junction City, Geary Co., KS. Josephine was the mother of 6 children, who were all living in 1900. She was listed in the household of their married daughter, Laura O. (Clewell) Baskin, b. in OH, age 38, and her husband, Charles H. Baskin, b. in PA, age 39, a druggist. Laura and Charles had been married for 12 years. Laura had no children. (1900 census, microfilm roll 481, Page 23A, house #482, family #496)

Anna married Elisha Pierce "Pierce" Allen, son of Elisha Allen and Lucy Ann Godfrey, on 27 Nov 1866 in Putnam Co., OH. Elisha was born on 25 Jan 1830 in OH. He was buried in Maple Grove Cemetery, Oregon, Holt Co., MO.

1st Leut. Co G 180th Ohio Vol INF

Son of Elisha Allen and Lucy Ann _____. His father was born circa 1790 in Pennsylvania, and his mother was born circa 1800 in Virginia.

Brothers Thomas G. Allen and Charles W. Allen enlisted and served in Company D, 21th Regiment OVI. Captain Thomas G. Allen was killed in action in July 1861. First Lieutenant Charles William Allen, a student of medicine under Dr. Charles Moore Godfrey and brother of the Captain, reenlisted and died at home of wounds received at the battle of Chickamauga in Georgia in September, 1863. Those brothers lie under a double monument erected in Pomeroy Cemetery, Ottawa, Ohio.

Elisha Pierce Allen entered the service 4 July 1863. He was promoted from Sergeant of Co. I, 88th Regiment OVI on 3 October 1864 to 1st Lt. Company G, 180th OVI. This Regiment was organized at Camp Chase, OH. in September and October, 1864, to serve one year. It left Camp Chase on the 10th of October for Nashville, Tenn., and from Nashville was ordered to Decherd, Tenn. The Regiment remained at Decherd for the most part of three months, and was used as guard to the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad. On January 6, 1865, the Regiment was ordered to Nashville, and, after remaining there a few days, was ordered to guard a train of wagons bound for Eastport, Miss. It went as far as Columbia, where it was met by an order to return to Nashville, and from there was ordered to Washington City. The Regiment reached Washington City January 31, 1865, and was placed in Camp Stoneman, near that City. After remaining about three weeks in camp it was ordered to Fort Fisher. On reaching the mouth of Cape Fear River, the fall of Fort Fisher was announced, rendering its services unnecessary. The Regiment was then taken to Newbern, where it joined a force, under General J.D. Cox, to open railway communication with Goldsboro and General Sherman's Army. At Kinston, N.C., on the 8th, 9th, and 10th of March, the Regiment had an engagement with the forces under Generals Bragg and Hoke, in which the Regiment lost a number killed and wounded. From Kinston the Regiment marched to Goldsboro, which place it reached March 21st. It remained here until April 9th, and then marched with Sherman's Army to Raleigh, N.C., where it performed garrison duty until the surrender of Johnston's Army. The Regiment then moved to Greensboro, and from there to Charlotte, where it remained as the city garrison until July 12, 1865, when it was mustered out in accordance with orders from the War Department.

KILLED BY TRAIN

David Allen and Mrs. Chilcoat Lose Lives - Auto Hit by Train

Joshua Chilcoat was seriously injured and his wife and David Allen were instantly killed, about 9:45, Tuesday morning, March 12, 1918, when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by a Burlington work train at the second crossing south of Nodaway station. The machine was a complete wreck.

The party were neighbors residing in the Monarch district, in Forbes township, some seven miles southeast of Oregon, and left to go to St. Joseph in the Chilcoat car for the purpose of shopping. It is supposed the main part of the work train had been sidetracked, as the auto was only struck by the engine and its tender, and was moving at a good rate of speed.

Mr. Allen was driving the car, and when struck was forced on the engine pilot and carried some 300 feet before falling. Mrs. Chilcoat was only carried a short distance by the force, and was badly mangled. Mr. Chilcoat was horribly mangled and he was put on the south-bound Villisca train, and taken to a St. Joseph Hospital.

Dr. H. B. Allen of this city was notified, and he hurried to the scene and took charge of his brother's body and had it removed to the Pettijohn undertaking parlors here, where the body was prepared for burial. Strange to say, it was found the body was but little bruised and no disfiguration.

The daughter and son-in-law of Mrs. and Mrs Chilcoat, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Hughes, were notified and they went to the scene and took charge of Mrs. Chilcoat's body and had it removed to the family home.

The funeral of Mr. Allen was held from the Presbyterian church, Wednesday afternoon, Rev. T. D. Roberts conducting the services.

Mr. Allen was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Allen, who came to this county from Putnam county, Ohio, and located in the Monarch district. He was born in Putnam county, July 21, 1867, and was therefore in his 51st year at the time of his sad and untimely death. He was a bachelor, and with his brother, John, farmed the old homestead, and he was a splendid, law-abiding citizen. His brother, John, was in St. Joseph at the time of the accident. He is survived by three brothers - Dr. H. B. Allen, of this city; John, of the Monarch district; Edward, of Marshall, MO, and a sister, Mrs. A. B. Laughlin, who resides in Oklahoma. Frank Allen, of this city, is a cousin.

Mrs. Chilcoat was a daughter of the late Alexander McCarty, an early day pioneer of Nodaway, and at one time resided in Forbes. She was about 50 years of age. She leaves besides her husband, a son and two daughters, one being married and is the wife of Emerson Hughes, of the Monarch district.

The funeral of Mrs Chilcoat was held Thursday afternoon from the Highland church, the interment being in the church cemetery.

Mr. Chilcoat, from our latest information, was injured internally, and badly bruised about the head and body, and his condition Wednesday was favorable for a recovery.

Hiram and Elizabeth had the following children:

- 495 M i. Capt. George Geiger was born on 11 Dec 1846 in Liverpool, Perry Co., PA. He died on 9 Apr 1865 in Mobile, Mobile Co., AL and was buried in Halifax United Methodist Church Cemetery, Halifax, Dauphin Co., PA.

In 1860 George Geiger was a clerk living in Harrisburg, Dauphin County (according to letter he wrote while in service) and stood 5' 5" tall with black hair and blue eyes. He was killed at the battle of Blakely Landing.

A Civil War veteran, he enrolled in Harrisburg July 10, 1863, with the regular army, overstating his age by four years, and assigned at the rank of private with General Service at Carlisle Barracks on permanent recruiting duty. After he formally requested command of colored troops and, with the glowing recommendations of several prominent citizens praising "gallantry" he never had any opportunity to display, he was discharged on March 14, 1864 and enrolled effective the same date at Benton Barracks, St. Louis, Missouri, as captain of the 4th Missouri Infantry African Descent, that became Co. C, 68th U.S. Colored Troops the day Geiger took command. He requested and received a twenty-day furlough starting January 21, 1865, and returned on time. Seriously wounded during the final assault on Fort Blakely in Baldwin County, Alabama, he died of his injuries that evening (Thanks for contribution, Dennis Brandt)

NOTE: About birth date? If true, it means he overstated his age by four years, something I have found to be unusual with regular army recruits. Also, I could not find him or his parents in any census. (Dennis Brandt)

214. Harriet Plattenburg (George Plattenburg, George Plattenburg, Johannes Blattenberger, Johannes Ludwig Blattenberger, Georg, Georg, Christophorus) was born on 10 Jun 1827 in VA. She died on 30 Jun 1855 and was buried on 3 Jul 1855 in Methodist Cemetery, Fairview, OH.

According to stories passed down in the Plattenburg family, Harriet, against her parent's advice, went to Selma, AL, to visit her uncle, Wesley Plattenburg. While in Selma, she met and married James Ferguson, who was living near Wesley.

According to some family records, Harriet was "Lost off Cape Hatteras in 1855."

Her son, Wesley Ferguson reported that in 1855, while in route with her two children from Mobile, AL (where she was living with her husband, James), she contracted cholera- probably after leaving Louisville by boat. After arriving at Cincinnati she was carried to the home of her cousin, Alfred Plattenburg, where she passed away.

Harriet's name appears on a tombstone at Fairview, Ohio. However, it is not certain if she is actually buried there. After her death, her children were raised by her parents, George and Eliza Plattenburg, in Oxford Twp., Guernsey Co., Ohio. Harriet's husband, James Ferguson, remarried.

Harriet married James Ferguson on 22 Jul 1851 in Fairview, Guernsey Co., OH. James was born in SC. He was buried in Hearne, TX.

After the death of Harriet, James Ferguson is believed to have remarried a woman by the name of Dorcus Brown, who may have drowned in the Mississippi River, during the Civil War, when the ship sank while trying to run the Yankee blockade.

Ferguson descendants report that James Ferguson is something of a mystery. He was not mentioned in his father's will and married two Yankees, both from Ohio. James never fought in the Civil War, but was reportedly sympathetic to the Confederate cause. His father was in the railroad business. By the 1870's, James was working in Port Sullivan, Texas. He later moved to Hearne, Texas.

James and Harriet had the following children:

George Plattenburg graduated from Bethany College, Virginia, in July, 1851. After graduation he went to Selma, Alabama, where for about five years he practiced law.

Around 1857 he entered the Christian Ministry and began to preach in Alabama and later was called to the pastorate of a church in Little Rock, Arkansas. Sometime during the Civil War, George moved to Henderson, Kentucky. It is written that, because his war sympathies were strongly in favor of the south, General Steele, who held Little Rock and that part of Arkansas, banished him from the state of Arkansas.

The Rev. Mr. Plattenburg was a Democrat and always as active in politics as became one of his profession. He was a man of marked piety. He was the father of eight children, four of whom survive.

"Lexington Intelligencer", 24 September 1904:

Death of Rev. George Plattenburg

Died, at his home near Dover, Monday evening, Sept. 19th, at 9 o'clock Rev. George Plattenburg aged 77 years and 7 months.

Rev. Plattenburg had been critically ill for about a month and his family had been called to his bedside: but within the past ten days his condition seemed to be improved, and when the end came only two of his children were present--John and Mrs. Harvey Vaughan.

Rev. Plattenburg was born in Wellsburg, Virginia in March 1827. He graduated from Bethan College Virginia, with either the first or the second class that graduated from that institution---a class containing Lard, Proctor, McGarvey and several other notables. After graduation he went to Selma, Alabama, where for about five years he practiced law. In a little while he gave up law and began to preach in Alabama and later was called to the pastorate of a church in Little Rock, Arkansas. Before going to Little Rock he was married to Miss Josephine Howard of Memphis, Tennessee. Mrs. Plattenburg died at Dover about two years ago.

When the war between the states came, Rev. Plattenburg was a warmly Southern sympathies. General Steele, who held Little Rock and that part of Arkansas, banished him from the state. He went first to Henderson, Kentucky, where he preached and taught school until he was called to the pastorate of the Dover church in 1865. From that date he had lived at Dover, preaching for the local church for many years. He also had charge of the churches at Wellington and Marshall, but without changing his place of residence. He was chaplain to the Missouri state senate and also to the house of representatives in 1882. He was the founder and editor of the Christian, afterwards Christian Evangelist. For many years he was a contributor to that paper, to the Standard and to the Christian Quarterly.

The surviving members of his immediate family are his two sons, John and Charles, the former of Dover and the latter of Iowa; and two daughters, Mrs. Harvey Vaughan of Dover and Mrs. Anna Littlejohn of Independence. Besides these there is the family of his uncle, the late J.S. Plattenburg, who was living in this county when he came to Missouri.

He died on 25 Mar 1905 in New Cumberland, Hancock Co., WV and was buried in New Cumberland Cemetery, New Cumberland, Hancock Co., WV.

In young manhood, John W. Plattenburg adopted the vocation of teaching. This he followed for several years, in the course of which he went to Wellsburg, West Virginia, and there learned the printer's trade. Later, as a journeyman, he set the first line of type on the old "Wheeling Intelligencer". His first newspaper, the "Wellsburg News", was founded about 1859, and was still being published when Mr. Plattenburg joined the Union Army during the war between the states as a captain of West Virginia infantry. He was wounded during his service, being shot through the shoulder, but continued in the army until the close of the war, when he resumed the printer's trade. In 1869, at Pughtown, then the county seat of Hancock County, he established the first newspaper in the county, known then, as now, as the "Hancock County Courier". It was a four-page, six-column publication, democratic in its politics, and while its form and style have changed to some extent during the fifty-three years of its existence, its politics have remained unswervingly the same. The paper continued to be published at Pughtown until 1895, with Mr. Plattenburg as editor and publisher, but in that year the county seat was removed to New Cumberland, and the paper went with the seat of government. The founder continued as its active head until his death. A good newspaper man and a capable writer, he made the publication well known and its articles and editorials were widely quoted by contemporaries in the journalistic field. ("History of West Virginia", 1923, Vol. II, pg. 274)

John Wesley Plattenburg enlisted in Company G, West Virginia 1st Infantry Regiment. He was promoted to Full 2nd Lieutenant on 14 Apr 1864. Mary married John Newman Edwards, son of Samuel Edwards, on 28 Mar 1871 in Near Aullville, Lafayette Co., MO. John was born on 4 Jan 1839 in Warren Co., VA. He died on 4 May 1889 in McCarty House, Jefferson City, MO and was buried on 6 May 1889 in Dover Cemetery, Dover, Lafayette Co., MO.

Maj. John N. Edwards was born in Virginia about fifty-one years ago. His parents moved to Lexington, Mo., when he was of tender age. He received a common school education and afterward learned the printing trade in an office at Lexington. At the commencement of the Civil War he enlisted in the Confederate army and belonged to Gen. Jo. O. Shelby's command. He was promoted time and again for skill and personal bravery, and won his military titles in the most honorable manner possible. He was engaged in more than fifty battles and skirmishes, and was severely wounded on more than one occasion. As the war drew to a close he followed Shelby and Price to Texas, and about the time peace was declared a small fragment of Shelby's command, known as the "Iron Brigade," sank the flag-the blood-stained flag which they had carried through the war-in the Rio Grande River, crossed the line into Mexico, and for thirteen months served in the French army. Later, Major Edwards returned to Missouri and published several books, one relating to the border warfare in Missouri, Texas and Arkansas, another entitled "Shelby and his Men." He soon after engaged in newspaper editorial work, first in St. Louis, next in Sedalia, then in St. Joseph and Kansas City, respectively. He was for a time editor of the Dispatch and Times in St. Louis, edited the Sedalia Democrat and Dispatch, later the St. Joseph Gazette, and at the time of his death was editor of the Kansas City Times. No writer in the West was better known than Major Edwards. He followed no man. Every idea he advanced was original, and every thought he expressed in print was copied far and wide. He had no superior in the newspaper field and but few peers. He was honest and fearless, and never published a line in public prints which he did not believe to be the truth, and for which he would not answer personally at all times. We, representatives of the western press, recognize in his death an irreparable loss. He was brave and generous in war, and fearless and honest in civil life, and liberal to a fault-an affectionate husband and a kind father. We believe that his death has left a vacancy in Missouri journalism that can never be filled. His death is a calamity to the press of the State. As an original writer and conscientious literary man, he never had a superior. He was brave and magnanimous in health, and fearless and resigned when the final summons came. Resolutions can not express our opinion of his ability and fearlessness. He lived the life of a patriotic American, and died the death of a brave, conscientious newspaper man. John Newman Edwards was a Major in Confederate General Joseph Shelby's Iron Brigade, an author (Shelby and his Men, Noted Guerillas), a newspaperman at various papers, several in Missouri, and co-founder of the Kansas City Times. He wrote articles about the James gang, and upon the death of Jesse James wrote "Tear the two bears from the flag of Missouri. Put thereon, in place of them, as more appropriate, a thief blowing out the brains of an unarmed victim, and a brazened harlot, naked to the waist and splashed to the brows in blood." During the Civil War, he was wounded at Hartsville, Helena, and Cape Girardeau. Upon his death in Jefferson City Missouri, a railroad donated a train take to transport the body of Edwards, his wife and daughter, back to the wifes home town of Dover, Missouri. John Newman Edwards is buried beside his wife Mary Virginia Edwards in the Dover Cemetery.

"The Lexington Intelligencer", Lexington, MO, 18 May 1889:

Major John N. Edwards:--The press of the state has given voice to the sorrow felt at the death of this accomplished journalist and elegant writer of his mother tongue. It is not to late for a friend whose friendship was born amid the messenger of death to place a chapter on the tomb of one who though gone from sight, can never be forgotten. He was the writer all that was noble and true in manhood, and his memory will be cherished until the hand now penning this tribute shall alike be cold in death. How sudden it all came. I had just written a letter to him introducing a young relation, when the sad dispatch came to me in my cottage home, in the Wayne county hills, (painfully to late to attend his funeral). It struck at my heart like the full thud of a trip hammer, deadening sensation. Comparatively so young, so fearless, so magnanimous, so warm-hearted, with the esteem of all and the love of those who truly knew him, Major Edwards without premonition is called from this bright and beautiful world, which to us seems less beautiful than before. To the writer there is an empty chair that can never be filled. I knew him well, knew him thoroughly; in tinted fields, in the march, in battle, in bivouac, in foreign lands, in business life, in the home circle, everywhere he was to me the same good noble man. He was to me the ideal man, and out side of kindred blood, the dearest friend I had on earth. When that sad dispatch from a warm friend of his announced his death, tears would start from the promptings of a heart that loved him, "with a love that passeth show," and not a line can be written or a syllable spoken in his praise that is undeserved. As a soldier he was brave, faithful and true; as an editor was original, trenchant, fearless and honest; as an author picturesque, vivid, and with a style both fascinating and dramatic. You can hear the roll of drums, the tread of marching squadrons, the bugle call and the sound of battle in his books, pathos, energy and vigorous description combined with the play of humor in his writing. His admiration for woman, his knightly courtesy, his kind heart, his honesty of purpose, his entire lack of deceit endeared him to all. He did not "count the cost" when he would favor a friend; he let the heart speak rather than the cold dictation of the brain. His death is a loss to journalism and to the lime of southern authors of which he was an ornament; to his family, to whom he was so affectionate and kind; to the needy and distressed to whom his charity was unbounded, and to the still lingering remains of the old confederate soldiers whose appeals to him for aid were never made in vain. The memory of battlefields, of wind and rain, of snow and storm, or roar of cannon and the sharp fire of musketry is a dream long past. The lone vigils, the weary marches, the retreat into Mexico, and the valley camp beneath Orizaba's snow-clad summit are all like visions of the night, but to the humble writer the character of John N. Edwards is an ever present living personality, the earth is darker since he left it, and immortality becomes more certain since he has entered upon its unending cycle. The intellect dies not, and his genius in eternal realms yet exercises an influence on earth. Although far from his place of burial, far from old associations in Lafayette county, that garden of the state, yet the writer of this will ever consider it one of the rarest privileges to have known John N. Edwards and been his friend in life and his admirer with all the sincerity of tried affection. To his grave in old Lafayette may all who revere true hearts and nobility of soul, turn as to Mecca whereon to renew their vows of fidelity, love of home, country, honor, truth, purity and friendship.

Rachel married Samuel McElfatrick, son of Edward McElfatrick and Eva Hartman, on 19 Sep 1842 in Middletown, Dauphin Co., PA. Samuel was born on 17 Sep 1821 in Middletown, Dauphin Co., PA. He died on 21 Jul 1911 in Princeton, Caldwell Co., KY and was buried in Princeton Memorial Gardens, Princeton, Caldwell Co., KY.

SAMUEL McELFATRICK is a native of Dauphin County, Penn. He was born September 18, 1821, and is the eldest son and second child of Edward and Eve (Hartman) McElfatrick, both natives of Pennsylvania. Hector McElfatrick, subject's grandfather, was born in Scotland; when a mere child he came to America with his parents, who settled in Dauphin County, Penn. He was a soldier in the war of 1812, and died in the city of Baltimore before his term of service expired.

Edward McElfatrick was an architect and builder. He left Pennsylvania in 1852, going to Fort W ayne, Ind., in which city he died in 1873, at the age of eighty-one years. His wife, Eve McElfatrick, was a daughter of Christian Hartman, who died in Lancaster County, Penn., about the year 1824. Mrs. McE. [sic] died at Fort Wayne, Ind. in 1882, aged eighty-two years. The family of Mr. and Mrs. McElfatrick consisted of the following children: Sarah, Samuel, John B. , a noted architect of New York City, William D., Mary, Josiah H., Isaiah C. (deceased) and Eliza (deceased).

The subject of this sketch commenced the study of architecture under his father, but finally abandoned it for the profession of civil engineer, which he commenced studying when sixteen years old under Harman Gross of Dauphin, with whom he remained eighteen months. After attaining his majority he was appointed civil engineer of the Dauphin & Susquehanna Coal Company , which position he filled until the year 1852, when he resigned in order to accept the appoi ntment of chief engineer of the Ohio & Indiana Railroad, now the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chicago, with which he remained until its consolidation with the Ohio & Pennsylvania Company - in all a period of eleven years.

He was next appointed chief engineer of the Grand Rapids & Indiana Railroad, remaining with the company two years, when he resigned and came to Louisville, and accepted a position as division engineer under George McCool, serving in that capacity until the completion of the road, making headquarters at Princeton. "Bedford Gazette", Bedford, PA, 24 June 1910:

This entire end of the county was startled on last Thursday, June 16, to learn of the sudden death of William Blattenberger. Mr. Blattenberger was directing a barn raising at the home of Wesley Studebaker above New Paris. The first tier of timbers had been placed when they were compelled to seek shelter from a downpour of rain. When the rain ceased the work was again renewed. A few timbers were lifted in place above the first tier and Mr. Blattenberger, standing on the ground and looking up, was in the act of giving some directions about their proper placement when suddenly he fell heavily to the ground and expired in a few minutes without regaining consciousness. He appeared to be in his usual health when he left home earlier in the week. Wednesday night he slept soundly and ate a hearty breakfast Thursday morning.

Mr. Blattenberger was a highly respected citizen of Fishertown; a man of integrity and honor; a man who lived justly, loved mercy and walked humbly with his God. He was a consistent and faithful member of the Fishertown Lutheran church and for many years had been filling positions of honor and trust in that congregation; at the time of his death he was a teacher in the Sunday School and an elder in the church council. To whatever duty he was called he responded with hearty fidelity. He was also a member of Schellsburg Lodge, No. 270, I.O.O.F. He became a member of this fraternal organization about 27 years ago.

Mr. Blattenberger was born May 14, 1852. He had, therefore, passed his 58th birthday by one month and two days.

In addition to that larger outer circle, those that mourn his loss and upon whom falls the greater sorrow are first all the members of the bereaved home, consisting of the widow and three daughters, two of whom are married and live in Altoona and Miss Lottie at home. Of brothers and sisters, the following survive: Fred and Mrs. Eli Renninger, of Fishertown; John, of Springhope and Abraham of Roaring Spring.

The funeral was held Sunday morning, June 19, with services in the Fishertown Lutheran church and with interment in the Fishertown Cemetery. The services were in charge of Rev. H. W. Bender. 339. Lewis Plattenburg (John Plattenburg, Jacob Plattenberger, Christian Ludwig Plattenberger, Johannes Ludwig Blattenberger, Georg, Georg, Christophorus) was born on 26 May 1833 in Stroud Twp., Monroe Co., PA. He died on 2 Oct 1873 in Stroud Twp., Monroe Co., PA and was buried in Oct 1873 in Methodist Church Cemetery, Analomink, Monroe Co., PA.

According to an old story, Lewis Plattenburg died in a farming accident when he was "hit in the chest with a plowshare". He died intestate (Monroe Co. estate file #687). His widow Catharine signed a waiver on 14 Oct 1873. The executor was Lewis' brother, Samuel Plattenburg.

In the 1860 Census, Lewis is listed as a farmer living together on the same property as his sister-in-law Susanna (Lee) Rockafeller. Also living with Lewis and Catharine were Lewis' younger brothers Charles, James, and George and his sister Etna. This may have been a very practical idea since Lewis' father John was ill and the Rockafeller family was still young. Charles was 17 and James 14, just the right ages to help work the Rockafeller's large farm.

In 1880 Lewis Plattenburg's widow, Catherine Plattenburg, age 43 born in PA, was living in Stroud Twp., Monroe Co., PA, with three of their daughters:

- Lizzie Plattenburg, age 16

RADER - Father James, a son of Joseph and Catherine Rader, was born in Bushkill Twp., Northampton Co., PA.,

June 13, 1833, and last Wednesday, June 10, 1891, at 3 o'clock he fell from a cherry tree, and at 8 p.m. he fell asleep in Jesus. Age, 58 years within three days. On the 7th of Sept., 1856, he was united in holy wedlock to Augusta Plottenberger, which union was blessed with 9 children. In the year 1855 through the earnest labors of Bro. Geo. Knerr he was soundly converted to God, received holy baptism, joined the Evangelical Association and remained faithful to God and the church until God called him from labor to reward. Only seven weeks ago his daughter, Mary Danzer, preceded him to the other world. Father Rader leaves a sorrowing widow, 2 brothers, 1 sister, 2 sons, 1 daughter, 3 grandchildren and many friends to mourn his departure, but not as such as have no hope. May God grant them a happy reunion in glory! Funeral by the writer, assisted by Revs. O. L. Saylor and N. L. Bechtel. W. H. STAUFFER

A CHERRY PICKERS DEATH

HE TUMBLES FROM A HIGH BOUGH AND DIES

The Awful Fate That Befel a Prominent Fruit Grower - A Man of Much Value to the Community

James Rader, the well-known fruit farmer on Borhek's farm on the Lehigh Mountain, fell from a cherry tree at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon and sustained injuries which caused his death at 8 o'clock in the evening. While picking the fruit he had climbed almost to the top of the tree and when about 30 feet from the ground the limb upon which he was standing broke and Mr. Rader fell headforemost from his lofty perch. He struck the ground with his left shoulder, which was broken, and he sustained internal injuries of a severe nature which later caused his death.

Dr. Bush was called and reduced the fractured shoulder, and later Dr. Stout was summoned in consultation. Their efforts were to no avail, however, and their patient, after much suffering, passed away.

Mr. Rader was 58 years old and had lived on the farm 13 years, during which time he brought it to the highest state of cultivation. Mr. Borhek, the owner of the farm, spoke of him as a most trustworthy and industrious man and takes his death as a personal bereavement.

Mr. Rader served as a soldier in Co. C of the 129th Regiment, under Capt. Jonathan K. Taylor, and in Co. K of the 202nd Regiment, under command of the late Capt. Lilly, of Mauch Chunk. He was a member of J. K. Taylor post. The deceased was a devout member of St. Paul's Evangelical Church, on Fountain Hill. In fact the existence of that thrifty congregation was due in part to his earnest efforts.

He is survived by a widow and three children.

The funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. After services at the home, the interment will be made in the Evangelical Cemetery.

MR. JAMES RADER - THE CHERRY TREE VICTIM

The late James Rader, who met with such a sad death on Tuesday evening by falling from a cherry tree was buried with military honors this afternoon. The funeral services were held at his late home on the Borhek farm and were conducted by Rev. W. H. Stauffer of the Evangelical church. The casket was placed in the hearse and with J. K. Taylor Post #182 G.A.R. as a guard of honor the remains were brought to town and interred in Evangelical Cemetery. The services at the grave were according to G.A. ritual. The pallbearers were comrades E. W. Miller, John Hartman, Charles Ziegenfuss, and George A. Yohe. Thirty five members of Taylor Post marched in. The funeral was a very large one.

Mr. Plattenberger is quite feeble in health but manages to get around with the aid of canes. He is 84 years old.

He volunteered for service in the Civil war July 28, 1862, at the age of 15 years and eight days, and was honorably discharged in the fall of 1865. Mr. Plattenberger enlisted at Nazareth, PA, with Company A., 153rd Penn. Infantry and also served with the 38th Penn. Infantry and Battery G, 2nd Reg. heavy artillery.

Capt. Owen Rice was the first officer that Mr. Plattenberger served under. Company A had enlisted men ranging from 15 to 45 years. There was one at the age of 15 and that was Jacob P. Plattenberger. Capt. Rice died from wounds received on the battlefield. The last captain he served under was John Norris.

Mr. Plattenberger was in sound of the Battle of Gettysburg. He encountered the hardships of the entire Virginia campaign and took an active part on the battlefields.

In the winter of '64 and spring of '65 he helped to erect the Old Army Church at Petersburg, Va. The place of worship was built of old logs. Mr. Plattenberger attended services in the church a number of times.

"Jake" Plattenberger as he is more familiarly known, was born July 20, 1847, at Nazareth, Penn. In his early boyhood he started in the tinsmith trade. When the Civil war broke out he entered the service. Mr. Plattenberger came to Savanna in 1886 and has since that time made Savanna his place of residence. He was employed for a period of 20 years in Savanna as street commissioner and city engineer. When Mr. Plattenberger came to Savanna, the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad had just started erection of buildings and laying of the yards. Mr. Plattenberger had charge of construction of bridges and doing concrete work for the railroad company at that time.

Mr. Plattenberger has several relics in his possession that he regards highly. A roll of honor of veterans of the G.A.R. of Savanna and Carroll county is in his possession. He has a picture of Brig. Gen. Adelbert that he brought home from Virginia. One relic of interest is a gavel made from stockades of Andersonville. Among his collection are many small articles picked up on battlefields.

Considerable time has been spent by Mr. Plattenberger in pen and ink drawings. One of his best drawings is that of the regimental headquarters of the 2nd Penn. H. A. at Fort Ethan Allan, Va., in 1868. He has other sketches drawn by himself which he prizes highly.

Mr. Plattenberger is a charter member of R. M. A. Hawk post 406, G.A.R., department of Illinois. He was commander of the Savanna post for several years and also served as county commander. Mr. Plattenberger took an active interest in the Soldier and Sailors association reunions that formerly were held in Savanna. He has a scrap book with clippings of different meetings and reunion gatherings. At one time there were 99 members of the G.A.R. post in Savanna.

Mr. Plattenberger was a member of the Illinois Society of Engineers and Surveyors for a period of eight years. He kept a record of his activities during his years of employment with the city of Savanna.

Rites are Here for Philip Plattenberger

After nearly 87 years of industry and helpfulness and kindness Philip Lewis Plattenberger fell into the eternal sleep, " a blessed sleep from which none ever wake to weep. His last months were filled with tired hours and his nights with weariness, so that his going home last Saturday morning gave to him a grand release to a new morning in a new realm, where his spirit arrived to the divine dwelling in joy and peace.

He was born in Nazareth, North Hampton County, Pa. He was the second child in a family of five children born to Aaron and Sara Suzanna Plattenberger. When he was fourteen years old the family moved to Iowa and made their home on a farm near Lisbon. On Jan. 16, 1879 he was married to Anna C. Spadt, who passed away in 1919. To this union three children were born. A daughter, Cloey, who died when six months old, a son Elmer, who passed away in 1918, and a son Frank, who passed away in 1927. On June 30, 1920 he was married to Lavanda Warg, but again was left alone when she died in February, 1934. Farming was his industry and he pursued it loyally and faithfully through boyhood and manhood, until the family retired and moved to Lisbon in 1908.

Religion with him was high life. Early he was baptised in the Moravian church and when a young man he joined the United Brethern church in Lisbon to which he was active and faithful and financially helpful. He gave his presence to the various church societies and guiding boards. Late illness caused him to cease regular attendance but he never forgot the church in his thoughts and contributions.

A brother Robert preceded him in death, besides those already mentioned. Surviving is his sister, Mrs. Mary Hahn, with whom he made his home the last nine years. Then there are the youthful ones: grandchildren, Glenn and Roy Plattenberger of Lisbon, Mrs. Nelavene Ellis of Trenton, Mo., and Mrs Opal Clark of Springville. The great grandchildren also live to carry his life in memory. Also a step-daughter survives, Mrs. Amos Zalesky of West Branch. Our friend now sleeps, but his memories go marching on, which he made by life of friendship and thoughtfulness. Would each friend of Mr. Plattenberger place a flower on this occasions, his place of rest would be covered.

This record includes the period of his life, history of hs family, and some deeds of person, between May 21, 1856 and April 3, 1943. Funeral services for Philip Plattenberger held Monday afternoon in the Federated church were in charge of the pastor, Rev. Albert H. Fadenrecht. Mrs. Fred Downing and Miss Hazel Runkle sang. Miss Daisy Burd was organist. Interment was in the Lisbon cemetery. Casket bearers were D. W. Morningstar, C. W. Carbee, W. E. Challis, E. M. Franks, J. H. Miller, T.M. Lee. Philip married (1) Anna Caroline Spadt, daughter of Israel Spadt and Elizabeth Roller, on 16 Jan 1879 in United Brethren Parsonage, Lisbon, Linn Co., IA. Anna was born on 20 Dec 1856 in Fairfield Co., OH. She died on 13 Jul 1919 in Lisbon, Linn Co., IA and was buried on 15 Jul 1919 in Lisbon Cemetery, Lisbon, Franklin Twp., Linn Co., IA.

Anna Caroline (Spadt) Plattenberger moved with her parents from Fairfield Co., Ohio, to Lisbon, Iowa in 1869. She was a member of the United Brethren Church of Lisbon, IA. She died in her home in Lisbon and was buried in Lisbon Cemetery.

MRS. PHILLIP PLATTENBERGER

Anna C. Spadt, daughter of Israel and Elizabeth Spadt, was born in Fairfield Co., Ohio, December 20, 1856 and departed this life at her late home in Lisbon, Iowa, Sunday, July 13, 1919, aged 62 years, 6 months and 13 days.

Her parents moved to Lisbon, Iowa, in the year 1869. She was united in marriage to Philip Plattenberger, January 16th, 1879 at the United Brethren parsonage in Lisbon by Rev. F. D. Adams. One daughter and two sons were born to this union, Cloey who died August 13, 1880, aged 6 months and 27 days. Elmer who died April 1st, 1918, being 36 years of age and Frank who lives near Lisbon. She has four grandchildren as follows: Nelvin and Opal of Springville and Glenn and Roy of Lisbon. She has one brother living, Peter Spadt of Wilbur, Nebraska.

These with her husband and other relatives and friends mourn her departure. Mrs. Plattenberger united with the United Brethren church of Lisbon, soon after her marriage and has been a faithful and consistent member since that time. She was a great lover of the home and was always glad to have her friends visit her. For a period of about twelve years she has been afflicted and during that time she has suffered at times very much, but has always borne her suffering with great patience. She would often say "live right and do good to all people and dying will take care of itself." She always inquired concerning those in the community who were sick and suffering and would often remember them with acts of kindness. Her last sickness was of brief duration only lasting one week. Only one week ago last Sunday morning she wanted Philip to go to Sunday school and church saying she could get along, but he knowing she was worse than she had been felt it his duty to stay with her. She always attended church when at all able partly because she felt it her duty to go, but also because she loved to attend the services of God's house. On last Sunday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock, she calmly breathed her last without a struggle: "Servant of God, well done; Thy glorious warfare's past,

The battle's fought the race is run And thou art crowned at last." The funeral was held at the United Brethren church, Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 conducted by the pastor Rev. Chas J. Roberts. Burial in Lisbon cemetery. (Source: Clipping from "Grandmother Emma Frederick's Scrapbook" in possession of Elizabeth Vanderschaaf, emailed to Dale E. Berger on 3 February 2008)

C. H. REIGER'S LIFE ENDS

Mayor Hahn Issues Official Call to People to Cease Labors at 3 o'clock Friday

Christian Henry Reiger, one of the community's most highly esteemed and successful farmers, long a familiar figure mingling with the people and activities of Lisbon, completed life's journey, died Tuesday at his late home a short distance north of town at the comparatively early age of 61 years. He had been in failing health for some time.

Christian Henry Reiger, son of John and Anna Reiger, was born in Linn county, Iowa, January 3, 1862. He was one of seven children, of whom one, Mary, died many years ago. He continued living at home until 1881. December 23, 1885, he was united in marriage with Mary J. Plattenberger. To this union there were born three children, Howard, Arthur, and Willard. Arthur passed away at about three years.

Mr. Reiger followed the occupation of farming, all of his activelife, and achieved a large degree of success. Aside from the duties that devolved upon him, in the pursuit of his chosen calling, he found time to serve his community in various ways, as a member of the township school board for sixteen years, and township trustee for seven years. He was also a director of the Linn Grove Mutual Insurance company for two terms, and was elected for a third. In these and other capacities, he was always found faithful and efficient. He was a useful citizen, and also a Christian man. A remarkable experience attended his conversion. It was during a spell of sickness, and led by the counsel of a devoted Christian mother, and in answer to her prayers, that his decision was made, and which was accompanied by a beautiful and satisfying experience, a convincing evidence to his soul, of his acceptance as a child of God. The impression made upon his mind and heart continued through the years, and only a few weeks ago he recounted the circumstances to his pastor, with a feeling abounding joy. Mr. Rieger lived and died an earnest Christian. He first united with the Evangelical church, but in recent years has been identified with the United Brethren church of Lisbon, in which he proved himself faithful and serviceable.

He was also a member of the Benjamin Franklin lodge, No. 574, A. F. and A. M. of Lisbon, and the Order of the Eastern Star. Mr. Rieger was charitably inclined, of a genial disposition, and always desired to be helpful, and indeed was so, in a multitude of ways, among his neighbors and friends, and who, in turn, sincerely appreciated him for his sterling qualities of character, and his constant readiness to serve. He was like a father to the younger men of his neighborhood, and some were wont to pay him the fine compliment that, because of his ability and disposition to be helpful in every possible way, he "ought never to die." Of course, such a man will be missed, at many turns, in the experience of those who have known him and been associated with him.

The decedent is survived by his wife and two sons, Howard and Willard, and one grandchild, also five brothers, John, Andrew and William of Lisbon; Matthias and Charles of Waubeek; and one sister, Mrs. Will Henderson of Mechanicsville.

Mr. Rieger had been in ill health for some time. He kept growing worse, causing him no little suffering. Death came to his relief Tuesday morning, August 7, (1923) at the age of 61 years, 7 months, 4 days.

The funeral service is being held at the Federated church at Lisbon, this afternoon, at 2 o'clock, in charge of Rev. L. P. Krome, assisted by Rev. Dillavon of Olin, a former pastor of the Lisbon U. B. church, and friend of the deceased. The service at the grave was in charge of the local Masonic lodge."

A LITTLE CHILD.

Newton Blattenberg, the 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Blattenberg, who was laid at rest Sunday, high upon the Casper Mountains at Freeland, was a particularly sweet child—as it seems to the writer, a child fitted only for the realm of angels. Peculiarly a child of simple play habits, much to himself and had little desire to be with other children of his age. He sought seclusion and whiled the hours away by himself. His little body now rests high up on the mountain table-land kissed by overhanging clouds.

LIMA - - Dr. John H. Blattenberg, World war veteran and leading veterinary surgeon of Northwestern Ohio, was a philosopher, even in death. Dr. Blattenberg, as officer of the day, rode at the head of the Armistice day parade. It began to rain. The crowds were scurrying to shelter. The physician declared he was in no hurry to seek cover from the rain drops which for five weeks had been unknown in Lima. "Take it easy, boys," he said. "Might just as well be happy when you can. Some of these days you're going to die and you'll be dead a long time" A day later at the same hour, Dr. Blattenberg died. Friends believe he has no premonition of death.

OBITUARY AS REPRINTED FROM "THE INDEPENDENT", NOV. 18, 1943:

Mrs. Lou Plattenburg Passed Away.

Was Prominent Newspaper Woman

Active in Civil and Social Affairs. Funeral Held Wednesday Afternoon

Mrs. Lou Plattenburg, 75, for many years connected with the Hancock Courier as an executive and widely known in the state, Hancock and Brooke Counties and the Tri-State area, died at 8 o'clock Sunday morning, November 15th, 1943, at the Ohio Valley Hospital in Steubenville.

Mrs. Plattenburg's death was unexpected and the news of her passing came as a shock to her family and legions of friends. She had just eaten her breakfast and was joking and laughing with the nurse and all at once it was noticed that she had been seized with an attack. Physicians were called and her trouble pronounced coronary thrombosis and beyond medical aid.

Mrs. Plattenburg on Tuesday, Oct. 5th sustained a fall in her home and fractured her left hip bone, and was removed to the Ohio Valley hospital in Steubenville, where she had been a patient until her death. She had fractured her right hip a number of years ago and never fully recovered from that accident and walked with a slight limp. Both hips were placed in casts and she was improving and seemingly in the best of spirits when death struck.

Mrs. Plattenburg was associated for many years with the Courier in co-operation with her late husband, Jesse T. Plattenburg, until his death, which occurred in 1912. John R. Plattenburg, present publisher, took over after his father's death and his mother continued in the newspaper work until death stilled her hand. She was the oldest woman member of the newspaper fraternity in West Virginia.

Mrs. Plattenburg was born September 2, 1868 at Bethany, in Brooke County, a daughter of the late Joseph and Julia Lewellyn Lockhart. She was married when quite young and resided in New Cumberland since 1891.

In addition to her newspaper activities she was a civic and social leader in her home community and took an active part in the various church organizations of this place, being a member of the Christian church, the Presbyterian Missionary society of the Trinity Methodist church, the New Cumberland Woman's club and chairman of the club, the Order of Eastern Star, the Victory club and served on the service canteen committee.

She also took an active interest in Democratic circles, and for many years had served as representative of her party on election boards.

Mrs. Plattenburg is a woman who will be greatly missed in this community. A woman of many friends. She always greeted one with a smile and ripple of laughter and good cheer. She was always doing for others with no thought of self, self sacrificing in her many deeds of kindness. A devoted wife as long as her husband lived and devoted to her children and loyal to her friends.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Julia Bambrick, widow of Thomas T. Bambrick, of Hollidays Cove, two sons, John R. Plattenburg, of New Cumberland and Joe Plattenburg of Weirton, six grandchildren. One grandson, Captain John William Plattenburg, recently returned for the North African campaign and has been recuperating from injuries in the Valley Forge hospital at Phoenixville, Pa.

Mrs. Plattenburg is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Eunice Kingsbury of Bellaire, Ohio.

The funeral services were held at the Arner Funeral home in New Cumberland Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Allen Fields, pastor of the Christian church, assisted by Rev. J. Russell Butcher, former pastor of the Presbyterian church, of this place, now located at White Hall, Maryland.

The services were impressive and the many floral offerings spoke in silence of the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

The interment was made in the family burial lot in the local cemetery. The active pall bearers were: ????cian Swan, Thos. F. McKenzie, H.C. Scott, Don G. Stewart, Scott Brown and George McCauslen, the latter of Steubenville.

The honorary pall bearers were: Fred T. Bradley, Thomas J. Garlick, N.W. Ballantyne, Geo W. McNeil, Jesse Godwin, R.M. Brown and Frank Rypka, the latter of Weirton.

YOUTH SUCCUMBS TO WOUND IN LEG

Accidental Discharge of Shot Gun Results in Death of Kenneth Reininger at Timmons Hospital
Kenneth Reininger, residing with his parents near Spring Hope, Bedford county, who accidentally shot himself in one of his legs yesterday morning as he was about to alight from an automobile to go hunting, died last evening at 7:15 o'clock in the Timmons hospital in Bedford.

At the time of the accident, Bruce Fetter and Kenneth had gone some distance from their home in an automobile to hunt. When Kenneth went to get out of the car, he pushed the gun out ahead of himself and it is supposed the trigger caught on the running board and discharged the heavy load of shot into his left leg.

Fetter hurriedly took the youth home and from there to the Timmons hospital in Bedford where the leg was amputated immediately in the hope of saving his life. He had lost much blood and was unable to withstand the shock.

Kenneth Reininger was the son of William D. and May Trout Reininger and would have been 21 years of age on Dec. 3. He is survived by the parents, two brothers and three sisters, Glenn, Harry, Mary and Catharine, at home, and Mrs. Raymond Turner of Spring Hope.

- 1315 M i. William Swain Plattenburg Jr. was born on 22 Sep 1915 in Philadelphia, Philadelphia Co., PA. He died on 5 Jun 1944 in Chittagong, India and was buried in Manila American Cemetery and Memorial, Manila, Metro Manila, National Capital Region, Philippines.

William Swain Plattenburg was a 2nd Lt. in the 395th Bomber Squadron, 4th Bomber Group, of the Army Air Corps. He entered service in October 1942. His last known status was "missing in action". He received the Purple Heart and Air Medal.

On 5 June 1944, B -29 serial 42 -6282, Capt John E. Sanders, Airplane Commander, proceeded on a combat mission to Bangkok, Siam in formation, beyond the point of no return using wing tanks only, without testing the operation of the fuel transfer system. The pump had been tested on the ground prior to the mission, and its previous excellent air operation was taken for granted.

Due to the tail heavy condition of the airplane, the pilot did not desire any gasoline transferred before bombs were dropped. When the fuel transfer system was tried, it failed to function and course was altered to nearest field, Cox's Bazaar, India. Upon arrival there, the Navigator was uncertain of his position and believed it was a Japanese Base. Rather than risk delivering a new B -29 airplane to the Japanese at their field, the Pilot decided to continue to Chittagong.

About fourteen (14) miles short of the field at Chittagong, India, the Pilot was forced to land the airplane in the water about 1 miles off-shore. The airplane was landed excellently in smooth water and began to fill with water immediately in both pressurized compartments. All crew members escaped from the forward compartment after pulling life rafts release handles. No crew member escaped from the rear compartment without aid from outside by crew members from the front compartment. Four (4) crew members were never seen after ditching began and were either injured in the landing and drowned, or were unable to escape from the plane and were drowned. Although the life raft doors were released, the rafts did not emerge from their compartments.

William Price was hired as a fireman for the New York, Susquehanna, and Western Railroad. William had been a fireman for three years before the accident, but made his first run with his mother's first cousin, J. J. Plattenburg, late Christmas night 1911. When they made a tight turn around the bend at Stockholm NJ, they found another train dead ahead. There was no time to apply the breaks, and the two trains collided head on. J. J. Plattenburg managed to survive with only a cut above the eye, but William Price became trapped between the bulk head and the water tank. He died as a result of the escaping steam.

The watch of the other train's engineer was found to be 20 minutes slow. William's parents subsequently sued the railroad claiming that the other train had stopped in Patterson NJ. They insisted the railroad was negligent in letting the other train continue knowing that the train from Pennsylvania had not yet arrived. The Price's won their suit and were awarded $700 by the jury.

William is buried on the same plot as his parents in Analomink Methodist Church cemetery, they reconnected. At last they over ruled Mr. Brock.

Stroud Twp.

Plattenberger Visits Savanna After 34 Years

Savanna, Ill. - - Frank J. Plattenberger, 84, of Puyallup, Wash., returned Monday after visiting his newpew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Plattenberger. This was his first visit here since 1924 and he said the town had certainly changed. Sheriff Henry W. Truninger was the only one of his old friends left here.

He remarked about the spreading shade trees as in Washington he said the trees all grow up straight and tall. He also said he never saw such large cantaloupes and took one home with him.

He was entertained at dinner Sunday in the Ray Westfall home, where his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs, Charles Plattenberger of Aberdeen, S.D. were weekend guests. He was guest of honor at a dinner Friday night in the Plattenberger home for 28 relatives from Savanna and Thomson. He visited his brother, Grant, Friday in the Galena nursing home.

He also visited in Sabula, as he expressed a desire to see the place where his parents lived seventy years ago. He was interested in the river and said it was changed since the government put the dams in.

ELMER PLATTENBERGER

This community suffered the loss of a most highly esteemed and useful citizen in the death of Elmer Plattenberger who died at his home on Monday evening, April 1, after a few days illness. He was active during the early part of last week and greeted his friends on the streets of Springville, although he was not feeling very well at that time, and on Wednesday he suddenly became much worse, being taken down with a severe attack of pneumonia which with a weak condition of the heart was the cause of his death.

Elmer Plattenberger, the oldest son of Philip and Caroline Plattenberger was born in Lisbon, Iowa, Sept. 8, 1881 where he grew to manhood. On January 29, 1902 he was united in marriage to Lila Jane Ilgenfritz and immediately after his marriage settled on the farm which has been his home ever since.

He is survived by his wife, and his two daughters, Anna Nelavene and Opal Maxine; two other children Elmer Raymond and Philip Paul having died in infancy. He is also survived by his father and mother Mr. and Mrs. Philip Plattenberger and one brother, Frank, all of Lisbon, Iowa.

Mr. Plattenberger was a man of many splendid qualities and was endeared to his friends and neighbors because of his great kindness of heart and generous nature. He was a friend to those in need and never failed to answer a call for help. During the past year he has shown himself to be a patriotic and loyal citizen. He has taken an active part in every public enterprise connected with the war, helping in turn with the W. M. C. A., the Red Cross, and the Liberty Loan and expected to bear his usual part in the coming Liberty Bond drive, being one of the members of the committee for Brown township. He did his duty in these patriotic movements with cheerfulness and enthusiasm and always was successful on securing results.

Mr. Plattenberger has been a member of the Knights of Pythias for 13 years, having served as the Chancellor Commander for the term of 1917. He was also a member of the Modern Woodman of America and at the time of his death held the office of Venerable Consul, having been elected for the term of 1918. Mr. Plattenberger was a hard worker in the lodge, doing all he could for the good of the order and it could surely be said of him that he tried to live up to its teachings.

The funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon 2:30 at the Presbyterian church, Rev. R. A. Brough presiding the sermon. The Knights of Pythias and Woodman the Pythian Sisters and Royal Neighbors were present in a body, besides a large congregation of friends who gathered to pay their last tribute of respect to the deceased. The floral tributes were many and beautiful. The funeral was under the direction of the Knights of Pythias, appropriate music being rendered by a male quartette from the K. P. lodge of Central City. The body was taken to its last earthly resting place by his brother Knights, who rendered to their deceased brother the last service that friendship can bestow in the beautiful and impressive burial ceremonies of the order.

FRANK NELSON PLATTENBERGER

Frank Nelson Plattenberger, son of Philip and Caroline Plattenberger, was born on the farm, north of Lisbon, October 20, 1884. It was here that he spent his entire life. He was one of a family of three children, a sister dying in infancy and a brother, Elmer, having passed away in the year 1918. All of his active life he followed the occupation of farming and proved himself successful in his chosen calling.

September 16, 1908, he was joined in marriage with Miss Nellie Ellison. To this union two children were born, Glenn Franklin, and Roy Edward.

Mr. Plattenberger was a man of sterling qualities, highly respected; in his contacts and associations with people, very congenial, and greatly loved by many who knew him as a friend. For more than five years he was a patient and uncomplaining sufferer, and it was only by sheer force of courageous determination that his life was prolonged. It was a brave and heroic battle, and in a more significant, than merely physical sense, he won, achieving a faith that lifted him far above all temporal and earthly conditions.

February 7, 1915, he confessed his faith in Christ as his Savior, and united with the U. B. church in Lisbon. He manifested a commendable interest in the church, and was always ready to do his part. He was interested and active in the Masonic and Eastern Star lodges.

He leaves to mourn his departure, of him more immediate family, his wife, two sons, his father, and step-mother and stepsister, an only aunt, Mrs. Mary Hahn, many other relatives, and a host of friends. It was at 12:30 p.m. on May the 16th, 1927, that he passed away at the age of 42 years, 6 months and 26 days. His passing was at a time when, it would seem, his work was not finished. But resigning themselves to the inevitable, his loved ones and friends look forward, with abiding hope, to the blessed reunion that is to come.

The funeral was held at the Federated church, Lisbon, Wednesday afternoon, May 18, in charge of Rev. L. P. Krome. The service was a tribute, fittingly expressed, in music, words, and flowers, and beautiful burial rites impressively given by officers of the Order of the Eastern Star and the Masonic lodges of Lisbon, which organizations attended in a body. The words of the masonic service were impressively spoken by Mr. Harry Ellison of Mount Vernon. The pallbearers were, Louis Hansen, John Miller, Ed Franks, J. M. Bridges, George McCall and Clarence Carbee. Interment was made in the Lisbon cemetery, the service being conducted at the grave by the chaplain of the Masonic lodge, Rev. E. G. Hunt".

Capt. Montgomery, Fire Dept., Retires

A fireman who underwent a fiery initiation on his second day of duty in 1914, has retired after 43 years of service in the Akron Fire Department. He is Capt. Arthur J. Montgomery, 904 Whittier Av.

He began as a substitute fireman in June, 1914, and the first blaze to which he was called was the old South Akron Transfer Barn fire. Most of the firm's business was done by horse-drawn wagons. Capt. Montgomery and others of his company were ordered into the hay mow to fight the fire. As they reached the fire scene, the barn collapsed around them. A fireman standing under the hay mow was killed. Capt. Montgomery escaped without serious injury.

He became a full-time fireman Dec. 1, 1915. He was promoted to captain on June 1, 1930. He was in charge of Engine Company 7, Cuyahoga Falls av. and N. Howard st. until 1937. He has been assigned to Company 9, 98 Dodge st., since then with the exception of a short period in 1940 at Company 8, 78 E. Miller av.

Capt. Montgomery, 69, is a native of Hametown, O.

Montgomery and his wife are relaxing this Summer at their cottage at 4764 Dusty rd., Portage Lakes. Capt. Montgomery enjoys fishing. They have three children and six grandchildren.
